

The Cash Box

VOLUME XIX — NUMBER 40

JUNE 21, 1958

A man's best friend is his "Witch Doctor". At least that's how Liberty recording artist David Seville feels about the witch doctor puppet crowning him in the photo above. In addition to recording the song, which hit the number one spot in the country, Seville also wrote it under the name of Ross Bagdasarian. His new release, which looks as though it could repeat, is another novelty, "The Bird On My Head".

THE CASH BOX POP POLL

The Cash Box Disk Jockey Poll was designed to determine which songs and artists have been the most popular and played the most during the past several months by deejays around the country.

The Poll was divided into three sections, popular, rhythm and blues, and country. Here we present the findings in the pop field.

Each disk jockey listed three choices in each category. Three points were awarded for each first choice, two points for each second choice, and one point for each third choice. Of the total number of points cast, the following is the percentage each artist received. The maximum percentage an artist could possibly receive was 50% since even if every disk jockey voted the same artist #1, it would still add up to only 50% of the six points available in each category.

"Only those records best suited for commercial use are reviewed by THE CASH BOX"

JUNE VALLI
(Mercury 71332)

B+ "LA SANTA VENUTA" (2:06) [Southern ASCAP — Di Minno, Skylar] June Valli makes her Mercury debut a most impressive one as she introduces a beautiful romantic opus set to a slow waltz tempo and styled along the lines of the smash hit "Vaya Con Dios." Excellent arrangement and reading of this class offering. Could break the charts.

B "DANCE WITH ME" (2:17) [Mills ASCAP—Yellen, Ferrari] Another charming romantic waltzer delivered with feeling by the polished songstress. This end also has a charming Italian flavoring.

ALVY WEST & THE LITTLE BAND
(Dot 15761)

B+ "YA-YA-YA" (2:14) [Larry Shayne ASCAP—West] An unusual instrumental heard throughout the upcoming Tony Perkins flick "This Angry Age," is treated to a fascinating interpretation by Alvy West's men. Exciting, trigger-fast, near-eastern theme that could catch on. It's different and deserves attention. Roslyn Teenagers who sing opening and closing add much strength to side.

C+ "BLUE BONGO" (2:50) [Jay IV ASCAP—West] A bongo is in the spotlight as the West combo glides thru a bluesy latin melody.

LAURA LESLIE
(Hanover 4503)

B+ "LA SANTA VENUTA" (2:29) [Southern ASCAP — Di Minno, Skylar] Laura Leslie, former Sammy Kaye vocalist, makes a most impressive debut as a soloist singing a tender, enchanting "Vaya Con Dios" type romancer. Fragile waltz tempo love ballad with some pretty multiple voicing by Miss Leslie. Strong new tune loaded with potential. Jockeys should go for it in a big way. (English and Italian lyrics).

B "IMPOSSIBLE" (2:35) [Rosemeadow ASCAP — Allen] Miss Leslie hands in a warm treatment of this melodic love tale from the pen of Steve Allen. Pretty arrangement that falls so pleasantly on the ear. Above par coupling.

SKEE BROTHERS

B+ "WHILE I'M AWAY" (2:21) [Conley BMI—Shedlowski] The Skee Brothers, an exciting new team styled along the lines of the Everly Brothers, make a promising debut on Epic with a strong new rocker. The boys have an interesting vocal blend and a catchy piece of teen material the kids should go for.

B "BIG DEAL" (1:59) [Conley BMI—Crewe, Slay] The brothers follow thru with another hard hitting rock-a-billy opus tailor-made for the teeners with happy feet.

DANNY ALLEN
(Valley 101)

B "TEENAGE BLUES" (2:05) [Valley BMI—Wilson] The Valley label, which produced Darrell Glenn's "Crying In The Chapel" hit, returns to the disk scene with a good rock-a-ballad offering chanted strongly by newcomer Danny Allen. Commercial side that should do well. Flute adds color to side.

C+ "PITTER PATER HEART" (2:00) [Valley BMI — Wilson] A pleasant romantic lilter is infectious styled by the performer.

The Cash Box Disk of the Week

"HARD HEADED WOMAN"
(1:52)

[Gladys ASCAP—DeMetruis]

"DON'T ASK ME WHY"
(2:07)

[Gladys ASCAP—Wise, Weisman]

ELVIS PRESLEY (RCA Victor 7280)

ELVIS PRESLEY

● The Pres is back again with sure-fire coupling which he performs in his forthcoming Paramount pic "King Creole." "Don't Ask Me Why" is a heart-rending rock-a-ballad chanted tearfully by the ace. "Hard Headed Woman" is a knock-down drag-out jolter that cuts along at a torrid pace. Two sides destined for the winners' circle.

"MONIQUE"
(3:03)

[Sands ASCAP—Cahn, Bernstein]

"THE SAME OLD SONG AND DANCE" (2:50) [Maraville

ASCAP—Van Huesen, Cahn, Worth]

FRANK SINATRA (Capitol 4003)

FRANK SINATRA

● Frank Sinatra who copped three awards in The Cash Box 6th Annual Dee Jay Poll (announced in this issue) has a terrific new two-sider which his d.j. admiration society will start on the road to the top. "Monique" is a beautiful love ballad from Sinatra's latest pic "Kings Go Forth." "The Same Old Song And Dance" is a lean-back-and-swing-freely item so perfect for The Man. They're both tremendous. Take your pick.

"HAPPY YEARS" (2:11)
[Vivo-Eden BMI—Benton, Otis, Liese]

"KATHY-O" (2:14)
[Northern ASCAP—Tobias, Joseph Sher]

DIAMONDS (Mercury 71330)

THE DIAMONDS

● With two consecutive hits to their credit ("The Stroll" and "High Sign") the Diamonds offer a potent new coupling that should extend their string to three-in-a-row. "Happy Years" is a strong rock-a-cha-cha opus enumerating the many pleasures of the teenage years. Commercial deck. "Kathy-O" is a soft romancer from the U-I pic of the same name. Diamonds sing this pretty tune during main title credits. Double-deck threat.

"PRISONER'S SONG" (2:35) [Shapiro-Bernstein ASCAP—Massey]
"LITTLE MARY" (1:59) [Travis BMI—Domino, Bartholomew]

FATS DOMINO (Imperial 5526)

FATS DOMINO

● Fats Domino's back in the groove once again as he hands in his most exciting side since "I'm Walkin'." The number is the top drawer oldie "Prisoner's Song" which Fats chants to a slow, extremely exciting R&R tempo. His vocal is just great. And so is the beat. Flip is a new rocker that moves.

RONDELLS with Ned Jr.
(Corlton 467)

B+ "GOOD GOOD" (2:30) [Weiss & Barry BMI—Joseph, Kay, Manning] Carlton could have another chart rider in this exciting, rock and roll entry by the Rondells. Group has a potent, commercial sound and a great dance beat. Percy Giles, the lead, is very strong.

B "DREAMY" (2:20) [Weiss & Barry BMI—Joseph] A good hip-swinging rocker is projected with gusto by the group. Side has an unusual tempo that starts toes a-tap-pin'. Good coupling for pop and R&B markets.

CHARLIE HOLDEN BAND
(Felsted 8530)

B+ "PAGAN LOVE SONG" (2:18) [Robbins ASCAP—Brown, Freed] Charlie Holden's Band takes hold of a favorite and brings it up to date via an exciting instrumental rock and roll treatment. Swinging effort that builds. Could break thru.

C "THEY'RE PLAYING OUR SONG" (2:18) [Miller ASCAP—Holden, Snowhill] Alma Knight handles the vocal chores as the band presents a rock-a-ballad.

DEAN EDWARDS
(Hanover 4501)

B "YOU'RE DRIVING ME CRAZY" (1:59) [Bregman, Vocco & Conn ASCAP—Donaldson] Dean Edwards delves into the standard catalog and comes up with a choice oldie which he revamps for today's market. Pretty rock-a-ballad reading using multiple tracks.

C+ "A TEENAGER SINGS THE BLUES" (2:27) [Bregman, Vocco & Conn ASCAP—Deane, Courtney] Another good teen ballad warbled with a heavy heart by the crooner.

BOB MILLER
(Jubilee 5329)

B+ "BABY, JE VOUS AIME" (2:00) [Hecht, Lancaster & Buzzell ASCAP—Roberts, Jacobson] Jubilee could have a winner in this exciting multiple-track rock and roll novelty by a terrific newcomer Bob Miller. Side has a clever lyric, good melody and a fine beat. Watch it.

C+ "CRAZY DREAMER" (2:00) [Hecht, Lancaster & Buzzell ASCAP—Roberts, Jacobson] A dramatic rock-a-ballad is belted with gusto by the songster.

AHMAD JAMAL
(Argo 5294)

B+ "MUSIC, MUSIC, MUSIC" [Cromwell ASCAP — Weiss, Baum] Applause cues in this cool jazz treatment of a smash pop oldie. Ahmad Jamal's Trio fashions the tune in a most refreshing up-beat manner that should meet with vast dee jay approval. Side is already clicking in the R&B field and could catch in the pop area too. Group is extremely smooth.

C+ "BUT NOT FOR ME" [New World ASCAP—Gershwin, Gershwin] Jamal's piano is again front and center as the trio cruises thru a shuffling jazz version of a Gershwin classic. Both sides stem from Jamal's latest LP bearing the title of this number. Fine on-the-spot recordings jocks should love.

"Only those records best suited for commercial use are reviewed by THE CASH BOX"

JULIE LONDON
(Liberty 55139)

B+ "IT'S EASY" (2:01) [Bourne ASCAP—Bagdasarian] Sporting her best come-to-me vocal whisperings, Miss London breathes sensually on a Latin flavored ditty reminiscent of "Hernando's Hideaway." David Seville and the ork provide a colorfully arranged tango backing. Dee-jays galore will spin this.

C+ "VOICE IN THE MIRROR" (2:27) [Northern ASCAP—Troup, London] The thrush offers a sensitive reading of a haunting ballad titled after forthcoming film. Pete King conducts the string featured ork. Smart programming.

WERNER MULLER ORCHESTRA
(Decca 30678)

B+ "TAKE ME DREAMING" (2:04) [Symphony House ASCAP—Gaze, Stillman] An Italian ditty being introduced to these shores via several recordings is presented in tricky string fashion by the Muller crew. A male chorus works neatly under the jaunty ork work. A bright ork attraction that could make noise.

C+ "HONKY TONK-TANGO" (2:26) [Olias] Crazy Otto takes on the honky tonk piano in this honky-tonk-string arranged tango. Disk's commercial feature rests on the top-half.

BONNIE GUITAR
(Dot 15776)

B+ "I FOUND YOU OUT" (2:04) [Bourne ASCAP—Kenny, Kenny] The artist, of "Dark Moon" fame, interprets a Nick and Charles Kenny oldie to a teen audience. Set to a medium-tempo ballad beat by Miss Guitar and instrumental accompaniment, the song stands a good chance of getting a new lease on life via this performance. Solid attraction to the youngsters.

B "IF YOU'LL BE THE TEACHER" (1:50) [Gallatin BMI—Miller] Side, in the vein of "Teacher's Pet," and "Teacher, Teacher," has a catchy beat, and Miss Guitar's reading grasps the flavor nicely. Should hold its own on deejay stanzas.

THE RAIDERS
(Amdex 4015)

B "YOO HOO" (2:17) [Sherman BMI—Adler, Alpert] The boys display a good deal of rock 'n roll polish in surveying this cute jumper. Harmony on the melody, and several vocal asides, indicate a first-rate command of the r&r idiom. Combo support is classy, too. Should be handled kindly by the jocks.

C+ "HOCUS POCUS" (2:33) [Hermosa BMI—Smith, Goldsmith] A single voice, plus combo backing, effectively paces itself throughout the rocker.

CARMEN McRAE
(Decca 30667)

B "MOON RAY" (2:18) [Lincoln ASCAP—Shaw, Madison, Quenzer] When the time comes for class programming, deejays would do well to spin this smart stint from Miss McRae. The jazz-directed vocalist tastefully encounters a rich, Latin-flavored ballad tailor-made for the McRae styling. Provocative Jack Pleis ork work. Top drawer platter spinner issue.

C+ "SO NICE TO BE WRONG" (2:57) [Amber ASCAP—Lampert, Gluck, Mure] A pleasant ballad to which Miss McRae supplies an appropriately sentimental, lightly-swinging touch.

The Cash Box Sleeper of the Week

"PLEASE NEVER CHANGE" (2:34) [Beechwood BMI—Townsend]

"WHAT SHALL I DO?" (2:39) [Beechwood BMI—Townsend]

ED TOWNSEND (Capitol 3994)

ED TOWNSEND

● Ed Townsend, the balladeer with the rich warm voice that rose to prominence via the hit "For Your Love," follows thru with a potent new rock-a-ballad "Please Never Change." Side again features the female choir backdrop which added such color to his initial hit. Flip is another solid R&R beat ballad with the chorus again playing an important role.

"JUNE, JULY AND AUGUST" (1:55) [Budd ASCAP—Kaye, Semos, Stanton]

"CHICKEN PICKIN' HAWK" (2:20)
[Planetary ASCAP—Tepper, Bennett]

RUSTY DRAPER (Mercury 71336)

RUSTY DRAPER

● Rusty Draper hands in a delightful new waltzer that could develop into a vacation time standard. It's a warm, ear-pleasing ditty appropriately titled "June, July and August" and features the songster and a chorus with a light-hearted reading that brings to mind the river boat type tunes of old. Flip is a good rockin' shuffler.

"BUTTERMILK" (1:55) [Sequence ASCAP—Shuman, Garson]

"PLEASE DON'T SAY GOODNIGHT" (2:12)
[Sequence ASCAP—Shuman, Garson]

JOE SHERMAN ORCH. & CHORUS (Epic 9277)

JOE SHERMAN

● Keep a close tab on the charts for a refreshing new tune called "Buttermilk." It's a wonderful new bouncer superbly executed by the Joe Sherman orchestra and chorus. Deck's got a happy-go-lucky sound that's very commercial and is tailor-made for summer programming. Arrangement is terrific. Bottom half is another pleasant romancer on the spright side. Watch upper portion.

"THE GREASY SPOON" (2:16) [Conley BMI—Slay, Jr., Crewe]

"HANGIN' ON TO YOU" (2:12) [Conley BMI—Slay, Jr., Crewe]

BILLIE & LILLIE (Swan 4011)

● Billy & Lillie, the "La Dee Dah" vocalists, team their talents once again on another cute and clever cha-cha novelty that could follow in the footsteps of their initial smash. Excellent latin tempo cutie that jockeys will find delightful programming. Definitely the team's best side since "La Dee Dah". Flip is a smooth rockin' effort.

"GATES OF HEAVEN" [End BMI—Truscott, Taylor]

RONNIE BAXTER (Gone 5036)

● Here's a sleeper that could develop into Gone's biggest record to date. It's a thrilling vocal effort by Ronnie Baxter. (See R & B Reviews).

IRVING FIELDS TRIO AND ORCH.
(Atco 6119)

B+ "SYNCOATED SADIE" (2:20) [Connelly ASCAP—Fields] A new pactee on the Atco label, the veteran pianist starts things off for the label with an inviting novelty. The effort has an irresistible catchiness in its old-fashioned syncopated harmony. Male chorus occasionally interrupts to offer the title, and play around with the melody. You keep wanting to come back for more here. Could show action.

B "RAGTIME ROCK" (2:04) [Mills ASCAP—Saffer, Fields] More Fields-chorus fun on an old-time idiom brought up to date.

RICHARD HAYMAN
(Mercury 71321)

B+ "TAKE ME DREAMING" (2:04) [Symphony House ASCAP—Gaze, Stillman] Hayman and ork move briskly over a colorful European ditty that ala "April In Portugal," "Poor People Of Paris" is melodically light-hearted, and easy-on-the-ears. A sprightly orchestral piece that can catch on.

B "SONG OF THE BIRDS" (2:23) [Hill & Range BMI—Lalagnino, Simoni] The tune is a happy delight, and the children's chorus that accompanies the Hayman harmonica and ork is a treasure. Charming presentation.

STEVE GORDON
(Adventure 101)

B "THE I-LOVE-YOU WALTZ" (2:30) [Napton, Discant] On the initial Adventure session, songster Gordon, an ork and chorus, perform to a waltz dressed-up in modern, big beat apparel. The platter creates an effective teen setting.

C+ "COME ON BABY, LET'S DANCE" (2:31) [Napton, Bishop] Vocal gimmicks by a femme chorus are the highlight of this upbeat opus. Lyrics take a tongue-and-cheek rock 'n roll viewpoint.

SHORTY ALLEN AND THE INSPIRATIONS
(ABC-Paramount 9933)

B "YA, YA, WUNDERBAR" (2:06) [Sheldon BMI—Allen, Davis] The side is a spirited novelty specialty featuring the rinky-tink Allen keyboard and The Inspirations' vocal in German. Bells and ump-pah-pah support adds greatly to the gaiety of the occasion. A joy-full bon-bon sure to get extensive change-of-pace play from the jocks.

C+ "RHINE-STONES" (2:07) [Stratton BMI—Allen, Davis] A warm-hearted waltzer that retains the Germanic atmosphere. Melodic pleaser.

JOHN DREW BARRYMORE
(MGM 12661)

B+ "CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS DIGS THE JIVE" (3:09) [Robbins ASCAP—Welles] From the current pic, "High School Confidential," actor Barrymore offers the Christopher Columbus story in jive terms ("The only thing square about this world are the cats that live in it"). Deejays can have a field day with this one, and distribution of the film could make this a single to reckon with, sales-wise. Unusual fare that could make it.

C+ "HIGH SCHOOL DRAG" (2:18) [Robbins ASCAP—Welles] Again from the flick, Phillipa Fallon rambles in a monotone, almost stream-of-consciousness approach. The language is once again cool. A combo performs between the dialogue.

B "SHE'S MY BABY" (2:23) [Graphic BMI—Banks] A robust vocal-instrumental that ably hits the rock 'n roll trail.

LENI BARTERI

(Big B 1012)

B "A CERTAIN SMILE" (2:17) [Miller ASCAP—Fain, Webster] The movie title tune that the industry has taken wholeheartedly to the recording studio is sweetly styled by the thrush. Backing is simple, reflecting the atmosphere of a French nitery. A fine ballad in an appealing light.

TOMMY LEONETTI (Vik 0331)

TOMMY LEONETTI

French maitre d' begs amateur to please leave thruout the disk. Funny side dee jays should enjoy for change of pace spinning.

C+ "PRACTICES THE PIANO" (1:55) [Bell BMI—] Von Blitzstein rides the scales as a British servant addresses the Count telling him about the many things that will take place in the household. But the Count just plays on.

(Dot 15779)

B "IT SEEMS THIS HAPPENED BEFORE" (2:15) [Norad-LeBill & Range BMI—Campbell, Wallis] A quality ballad is rendered by Sharon in a manner directed at the teen market, but still straight enough to please those in the higher age bracket. Sharon has effectively caught the haunting melody, and warm lyrics that compliment the tune. Lots of class teen-adult programming here.

C+ "COTTON PICKIN' CHICKEN PLUCKIN' SHAME" (2:25) [Norad-LeBill BMI—Campbell, Wallis, Houpp] Strictly for the teen trade, the rocker uses the familiar expression as an answer to the sack dress fad. Sharon, whose gal wears one, does the rocker up nicely.

Dinah Shore "Secret Of Happiness" Contest Winners Announced By RCA Victor

Jack Dunn, Manager of Disk Jockey Promotion at RCA Victor Records, begins the lengthy job of reading through several thousand letters entered in the RCA Victor "Secret of Happiness" contest to promote the Dinah Shore record of the same title.

NEW YORK—The final winners of the RCA Victor "Secret of Happiness" Contest were announced last week by Jack Dunn, Manager, Disk Jockey Promotion.

The contest was held to promote Dinah Shore's recording of "The Secret of Happiness" (based on the Impala TV commercial theme), and a 1958 Chevrolet Bel Air Impala Convertible went to the person writing the best letter on his particular formula for "The Secret of Happiness." The same Chevrolet was also awarded to the local disk jockey who sponsored the listener.

Over a thousand DJ's participated in the contest, and entries numbered well over 700,000—one of the largest responses ever accorded an RCA Victor contest. The panel of judges included Sid Parnes, Editor-in-chief of The Cash Box; Ann Mosher, Editor of Radio-TV Mirror; and Dick Kleiner, TV columnist for the New York World-Telegram-Sun.

First prize winner was Peggy Todd of Austin, Texas with sponsoring disk jockey, Bill Jackson of Radio Station KAZZ in Austin also receiving a Chevrolet convertible. Second prize winners, who received an RCA Victor color TV set, were George L. Bong of Brighton, Mass. and DJ Ed Penney, of WTAO in Boston. The third prize of an RCA Victor Mark VII Hi-Fi Phonograph went to Mrs. John Ramsey of East Lansing, Michigan and WJIM disk jockey Lloyd Garten in Lansing, together with Mrs. Edward Bohjanan and DJ Ed Ruetz, WRAC, Racine, Wisconsin. Runners-up receiving Polaroid Land Cameras were awarded to Bonnie Hubbard and Gary Stagers of KVAS in Astoria, Oregon, and Mrs. Ella Henry and Paul Kinniry of WDAN in Danville, Illinois.

The contest was open to all disk jockeys throughout the country and ran from May 6 to June 6. Some of the stations which had entries totaling well into the thousands were KABC, Hollywood, California; KGBC, Galveston, Texas; WAVZ, New Haven, Connecticut; KILT, Houston, Texas; WHOL, Allentown, Pennsylvania; WLAM, Lancaster, Pennsylvania and several others.

Marks Adds Brazil Rep

NEW YORK — Another firm has been added to those representing the Edward B. Marks Music Corporation in various countries throughout the world. This one is Fermata Do Brasil Ltda., a leading publisher with offices in Sao Paulo and Rio de Janeiro.

When Herbert E. Marks was in South America recently, he and Enrique Lebendiger, the head of Fermata, discussed such representation. The contract was signed when Lebendiger visited New York recently.

Fermata already publishes such top Marks successes as Lecuona's "Malgueña", "Andalucia" (The Breeze And I), Rodgers and Hart's "Manhattan", Cugat's "My Shawl" and the more recent "Wonderful!, Wonderful!" among many others. Under the terms of the agreement Fermata will publish much of the Marks music and will be entitled to collect performing, mechanical and other royalties on the entire available Marks catalog, save only those compositions previously given to other Brazilian publishers.

Marks music is now represented exclusively by Albert in Australia; Basart in Holland; Curci in Italy; Grever in Mexico; Reuter & Reuter in Scandinavia and Siegel in Germany and Austria. Negotiations for a renewal of agreement are now being conducted with Quiroga of Spain and for a new exclusive agreement with a leading Argentinian publisher for the territories of Argentina, Uruguay and Chile. In Canada Marks is usually represented by Gordon Thompson of Toronto. In England, France and Belgium, Marks continues to entrust its publications with various publishers, most of whom it has dealt with for many years. E. B. Marks works are in the hands of more than thirty British publishers and twenty French.

Oberstein Re-enters Pop Market Via Own Rondo Label

NEW YORK—Eli Oberstein, after ten years in the low-priced LP field, has returned to the pop market via his own label, Rondo Records.

Oberstein has set up offices in New York City at 18 West 55th Street. During his Varsity-Royale days he headquartered in Union City, New Jersey. Oberstein revealed that the inexpensive LP operation he created during the ten years from 1948 to 1958 will continue to operate as before. However, he will personally devote all of his time to Rondo.

Rondo already has 35 national distributors and is selling four separate album lines. There is a Rondo-Gold label at $4.98, Rondo at $3.98, Rondo-ette at $1.98 and a Rondo stereo-phonetic line at a still-unannounced price. Oberstein made no statement concerning the singles market.

As executive assistant, Oberstein has selected Herb Joseph, a long-time aide. The Dick Gersh Office has been retained to handle national publicity.

In the first release to his distributors, Oberstein has included four of the Rondo-Gold series; Giovanni Martinelli, "The Last Of The Titans", in a compilation of 50 years of his operatic recordings spanning the period from 1908 to 1958; pianist Joseph Hofman in a recital of Chopin's works; Serge Prokofieff playing his own compositions and "Holy Days In Song At Saint-Eustache". The Rondo-Gold series is aimed at the collector of esoteric recordings.

Distributors have received twelve Rondo LP's; "Perfect For Dancing" by Willie Farmer and His Orchestra; Sarah Vaughan; "Yes! It's Paris" by pianist Kurt Maier; "Yes! It's Italy" by Kurt Maier; "Richard Tauber Styled Songs of Vienna" by tenor Miklos Gafni; "Yes, It's Spanish" by Kurt Maier; "Slaves Of Love" by Johnny Gregory; "Yes! It's Vienna" by Kurt Maier; "To You, Dearly Beloved" by Max Jaffa and his BBC Orchestra; and "Yes! It's Beautiful" by Kurt Maier.

Included in the twenty Rondo-ettes ($1.98) that went to the distributors are: Dizzy Gillespie, Jack Teagarden, Jaye P. Morgan, Erroll Garner, The Three Suns, Lawrence Welk, two packages by Ken Griffin, Pee Wee Hunt, Kay Starr, Gordon MacRae, Duke Ellington, Louis Prima, Don Baker, "Lonely Hearts" by Paul Baron and his Orchestra, "Vienna In 3/4 Time" by Charles Vanberg and his Orchestra, the English production of "Alice In Wonderland", "Show Music In Hi Fi" by Johnny Gregory and his London Orchestra, a coupling of the leading tunes from "Pal Joey" and "My Fair Lady" and Offenbach's "Gaité Parisienne" by Manuel Rosenthal and the RIAS Orchestra.

Oberstein stated, "Rondo has every price range and every type of material already included in its catalog. The packaging on all of Rondo's releases, at any price, will combine the finest art and color reproduction, vinyl covered and factory sealed in polyethylene bags that will keep the covers and albums clean and dust-free. Money will be advanced to every dealer for cooperative ads and to every distributor for promotional purposes. A regular advertising campaign using trade papers, consumer magazines and newspapers will be initiated on a 52-week basis".

Eli Oberstein started with Columbia Records as head of its branch operations in 1924. Shortly after that he spent four years on building the Okeh label.

In 1928, Oberstein left Okeh and became the head of RCA Victor's Record operation for the next eleven years.

In 1939, Oberstein left RCA Victor and started his own outfit, Scranton Records.

In 1941, after selling the Scranton diskery, Oberstein developed and created the "Classical Record Company" and in 1944 sold out to the Majestic Corporation.

The following year, Eli Oberstein returned to RCA Victor as director of A & R. This time, he remained for three years, (1945-1948) ultimately leaving to start one of the first of the low-priced lines to sell in non-record store outlets—Varsity and Royale.

Happy Dot Twosome

NEW YORK—Bob Thiele, Vice President and A&R Director for Dot Records, and Dot's hot property, Pat Boone, are evidently pleased with the results of a new session that the songster recently cut for the label. Currently Pat is represented on the charts with his "Sugar Moon" and "Cherie, I Love You."

ALL ABOUT DISK JOCKEYS

Elliot Field (KFWB-Hollywood, Calif.) has started a "trade-out" deal with his listeners, which will eventually aid the City of Hope. Starting with a shoelace he has traded up to a fifty dollar handbag. Objective: To get a Cadillac, auction it off, and turn all proceeds to the City of Hope. . . .

Al Weaver (WKBC-North Wilkesboro, N.C.) has a "Saturday Session" stint on which he does practically nothing. The deejay turns the program over to two teenagers selected, each week, from schools in Wilkesboro. They pull their own music, open and close the show, and introduce the records. All that Weaver does is run the turntables, and read the commercials. Originally for the school season, the idea has met with such success that it will be continued through the summer. . . . At a recent meeting of the Portland Disk Jockey Association, Howie Leonard (WLOB-Portland, Me.), succeeded Ken Garland (WPOR-Portland, Me.), as temporary chairman for the next four months. During the last year, the group has held benefit dances for the Heart Fund and Cancer Research. . . . Fred Fiske (WWDC-Washington, D.C.) has a disk column in the July issue of "True Romance," which discusses the abundance of teenagers involved in making hit singles. . . . Johnny Johnson (KOY-Phoenix, Ariz.) writes that "Phoenix is rapidly becoming one of the big record centers of Southwest. Frontier Distributors of El Paso is moving a rep to Phoenix to better serve the area. This will bring a total of eight the number of distribs and reps in the area. . . . WOAI-San Antonio, Tex. issues a weekly "Dirty Thirty" listing, which is a kidding, inoffensive round-up of such disks as "Clair de Lune Rock" by Clyde Grodny on Badjazz. . . .

Claire and Saxie Dowell (KPOK-Scottsdale, Ariz.) in Chicago for a three-week vacation, their first visit East since leaving WGN-Chicago in 1956 to join KPOK. Saxie was a deejay for WGN, and Claire was with the station's program department for twenty years. . . . WBZ-TV-Boston, Mass. celebrated its tenth anniversary June 9th as New England's first commercial television station with "live" telecasts from the Boston Arts Festival. . . . Ralph Scott (KUDY-Littleton, Colo.) handling the remote from Denver's "Santa Anita Lounge and Supper Club" over KUDY. . . . The show is carried "live" over KUDY on Friday and Saturday evenings from 7:30 to 8 PM. . . . Neil Guertin (WWON-Woonsocket, R.I.) reports that WWON ran a two hour dedicatory program on Sunday, June 1st in honor of all Shut-In's in the audience. For a month in advance WWON promoted the program by asking for requests, and the mail and telephone response, says Neil, was impressive. . . . With a truck-drivers' strike at two of Philadelphia's three daily newspapers, WIP-Philadelphia, Pa. provided a mimeoed sheet to hotels and department stores highlighting main news events. It's success has prompted plans to put the sheet out on a permanent basis. . . . Ken Rowland (WOW-WOW-TV-Omaha, Nebr.) subbing for vacationing Joe Martin on the "Joe Martin Calling" show until June 23rd. . . . In August, two shows run by Freeman Hover (KCSR-Chadron, Nebr.), "The KCSR Bandstand," and "Top 40 Time," will be running continuously for four years. Freeman says he averages two to three record hops per month. . . . Gene Davis (WHB-Kansas City, Mo.) played, as he has done for many years, Christmas Carols over the Memorial Day Weekend dedicated to those drivers who would not be around for next Christmas because of careless driving over the Holiday weekend. The new twist this year: Dale received more than two dozen Xmas cards from motorists, advising him that they had made it through the weekend. . . . Danny Kaye and Frank Sinatra have joined in the acquisition of the Mount Rainier Radio and Television Broadcasting Corp, licensee of KJR-Seattle, Wash., KXL-Portland, Wash., and KNEW-Spokane, Wash. Lester M. Smith, president of the corporation, is remaining as head of the organization under a long-term contract. . . .

Jack Gale (WITH-Baltimore, Md.), head of Jalo Records and Jalo Music, who in the last ninety days has recorded and sold masters to Gone, Peacock, and ABC-Paramount, last week announced the signing of The Kings, a vocal group, Joe Allen and his Alleycats, Jennie & Jay, a sister-brother duo, and the Blentones. . . . Jack L'Ecuyer is the new deejay at WTSL-Manchester, N.H. . . . Howard Egan is now employed by station WNBC-Conway, N.H. . . . Ed Horne makes the move from WSNE-Sanford, Me. to WLOB-Portland, Me. . . . Hy Lit has left WRCV-Philadelphia, and is now associated with WCAU-TV, Philadelphia as host of a Saturday Afternoon teen-age show known as "Block Party." . . . Dick Costin has joined the staff of WBGR-Jesup, Ga., replacing W. C. Rogers, who has moved to a North Georgia outlet. . . . Bob Drews recently switched from KJOL-Omaha, Nebr. to WAMP-Pittsburgh, Pa., where he has the morning stint.

Perez Prado's "Patricia" Breaks Wide Open

NEW YORK—Perez Prado is back on the winning track again with one of Victor's hottest up-coming platters, "Patricia." Penned by Prado and recorded by the Latin maestro, the number took a tremendous jump on The Cash Box Top 75 Best Seller list last week when it jumped from the number 62 spot on the chart into the number 30 position.

The last Prado record that achieved national recognition was the artist's recording of "Cherry Pink and Apple Blossom White." This number completed a tremendous run on the charts and turned out to be the No. 3 money maker of 1955, according to The Cash Box' Annual Year End Juke Box Operator Poll.

Victor brass reports that the reaction to "Patricia" is even greater than the reaction to "Cherry Pink" after the same number of weeks in release.

Jan Records Expands

NEW YORK—Jan Records, organized four months ago by Tom Fleeger and Dan Weisfeld, has moved into a heavy expansion program.

The diskery, a subsidiary of Fleeger Drilling, Inc., Texas oil equipment firm, has established offices in Beverly Hills, California; Dallas, Texas, and New York City. Dick Gersh has been retained to handle national publicity and Eastern promotion with George Jay flacking the Western deejays from his West Coast office.

Weisfeld, vice-president in charge of national sales and promotion, announced that he is currently preparing material for a full-scale LP program due in the Fall.

Jan's first single, a rock and roller by Gene Summers, titled "Straight Skirts," was a debut disk for the firm and the current Summers platter, "Nervous," has been well received by the firm's thirty distributors, according to Weisfeld.

Previous to his current stint, Weisfeld was with Mercury Records as Southwestern promotion manager and did a hitch as a deejay, producer, writer, director and actor at Station WFAA-TV in Dallas.

Presley Army Jewelry To Be Marketed

NEW YORK—What could very well become one of the biggest promotions since Davy Crockett hats, will break wide open on July 2nd when Elvis Presley dog tags, bracelets, anklets, sweater guards, and key chains, all bearing Presley's name, U. S. Army serial number, blood type, autograph and etched picture are introduced. The jewelry will be sold in chain and department stores, record shops, super markets, and theatres playing the Presley picture, "King Creole."

The "army" jewelry is the brainchild of WBZ disk jockey Norm Prescott and sportscaster Leo Egan. The items are being manufactured by Bel-lavance Jewelry of North Attleboro, Mass. They come in both silver plated and gold plated versions at $1.00 each. Sidney H. Ascher is handling the publicity-promotion for the line.

Advance orders are reported to exceed 1½ million pieces.

Mutual Admiration

CHICAGO—Two of Mercury Records' recording artists take exception to Mr. Kipling's philosophy by proving "that the twain shall meet." Rudyard was almost right because it was only coincidence that found academy award winner Miyoshi and band leader Ralph Marterie in the Chicago area. Miyoshi was headed westward toward Hollywood where she was to appear on the Dinah Shore network television show and Ralph was home for a few days while his new $50,000 scenic-cruiser band-bus was in the garage for a check-up. Both Miyoshi and Ralph seem equally enthusiastic over each other's current Mercury album.

Victor Speeds Cliburn Disk To Dealers

NEW YORK — Pianist Van Cliburn's first recording for RCA Victor, which he completed in an all-night recording session that commenced at midnight, May 29th, has been approved for release and will go into production immediately, RCA Victor announced last week.

In order to meet anticipated demand for the recording—Tchaikovsky's Piano Concerto No. 1 in B Flat Minor with a Symphony Orchestra under the direction of the Russian conductor Kiril P. Kondrashin—all RCA Victor plant facilities will be utilized.

It is expected that initial shipments of the recording will be made to RCA Victor Distributors within two weeks and that the record will be available in retail stores shortly thereafter.

Because of the tremendous public interest in the first recording by the Texas-born winner of Russia's First International Tchaikovsky Competition. "The RCA Victor Society of Great Music" has chosen the recording as a mid-summer main choice.

Cliburn, whose exclusive signing by RCA Victor was announced by John L. Burns, President of the Radio Corporation of America at the annual stockholders' meeting on May 6th, made his first recording for RCA Victor four days after a triumphant series of concerts in New York, Philadelphia and Washington.

Maestro Kondrashin who came to the United States by special arrangement with the State Department at the request of Cliburn, left for Russia 24 hours after the completion of the recording and its approval at RCA Victor's recording studios at 155 East 24th Street, in New York.

London Lowdown

Just back from a quick visit to Paris where the "River Kwai March" is still the No. 1 song, closely followed by the French version of "With All My Heart" with Dalida having the best selling version on Barclay Records.

Three top personalities in France are Brigitte Bardot, Gilbert Becaud and the one and only Fernandel.

The music hall theatres in Paris have been affected by the political situation and the last bill at the Olympia Theatre which has now been closed until September was headed by Cab Calloway.

For similar reasons the Billie Holiday concerts have been cancelled.

Prolific writer Henri Salvador whose "Melodie d'Amour" was such a big hit in the U.S., now hitting with his song "Le Gars de Rochechouart" better known to you as "Saunabad". One of his best songs has just been bought by Edwin H. Morris Company in the U.S. and is likely to be recorded by some big American stars.

France now deciding whether to come out with horror records along the lines of "Dinner with Drac".

The Platters still one of the hottest things on wax in France.

Most of the big names in France now away from Paris to begin a tour of the fashionable summer resorts and casinos.

Back in London, talked to Dan Fisher here to see his friends in the publishing world. He will be making his usual humorous contributions to The Cash Box.

"The Army Game", theme song from the popular British TV serial, now heading for top honors in our charts.

Also in this week, the Mudlarks version of "Book of Love" and Marvin Rainwater's new waxing "I Dig You Baby".

Perry Como's waxing of "I May Never Pass This Way Again" has overtaken the Robert Earl version.

The tour planned months ago for the Hi-Lo's has finally been confirmed, and should start about mid-September with visits to the leading Rank supercinemas. This is to be followed by visits to the Continent.

The Goofers will be appearing in Stockholm during the month of June.

At the Variety Club Annual Ladies Luncheon one of the star guests will be Julie Andrews.

Everybody wondering whether the "Purple People Eater" will invade this island. Rumors have it that it is more than likely.

Stanley Black just back from a very successful trip to Germany where he made TV guest appearances with the wonderful Harry Hermann orchestra.

One of Germany's big hits at the moment is Billy Vaughn's recording of "Sail Along Silvery Moon".

Big arrival of long haired artists in London this week including the fabulous Maria Callas, Blanche Thebom and world famous pianist Artur Rubinstein.

United Artists To Release 6 LPs

NEW YORK — United Artists Records is expanding its LP program and will distribute six albums this month, it was announced last week by Max E. Youngstein, President.

Heading the list are two sound track albums from new United Artists films—"The Vikings," composed and conducted by Mario Nascimbene, and "God's Little Acre," composed and conducted by Elmer Bernstein.

The other long-plays going into the market during June are "8 To The Bar," featuring Whelan Tyme and his Boogie Woogie Boys; "UA Showcase," featuring Hal Schaefer and his orchestra; "Come Sing Along," starring the Community Singers, and "The Greeks Had A Song For It," which features Gus Vali and his orchestra.

"8 To The Bar," parlays a number of standards done in the boogie woogie tempo.

Hal Schaefer, musical director of UA Records conducts the orchestra on the "UA Showcase" album. He has done some modern arrangements on songs from United Artists film hits of the past.

"Come Sing Along" was recorded at a community sing and presents a number of standards.

In "The Greeks Had A Song For It," Gus Vali conducts the orchestra in some new arrangements of authentic Greek melodies. This album will be heavily plugged via the foreign language stations and the various Greek Newspapers.

Hefty merchandising and promotional support has been lined up by UA for its new album release program. "The Vikings" is getting a particularly strong assist from the huge national campaign backing the Technirama production, which stars Kirk Douglas, Tony Curtis, Ernest Borgnine and Janet Leigh.

"God's Little Acre" is similarly benefited by the promotion for the UA film, which features coast-to-coast tours by the stars and producer.

Other albums will receive the combined merchandising aid of UA's full field force and distributors' promotion men.

Chianti Demonstrates "Hand Jive"

NEW YORK — Tommy Chianti, New York promotion man for Capitol Records has been literally dancing around the East Coast demonstrating his latest dance creation the "Hand Jive" dance, routined by Chianti to fit the successful Capitol pressing of "Willie And The Hand Jive" by Johnny Otis.

The dance was introduced in New York on the Herb Sheldon tv'er; in Boston on Dave Maynard's telecast, and in Baltimore on the tv stint conducted by Buddy Deane. Deane enjoyed the dance so much, he had Chianti and the teenager on his show go through the dance-step three times.

Chianti believes that "tv is the dancer's medium, and TV bandstand type shows really prove it. Teenagers around the country," continues Chianti, "are forming Dance Clubs which compete with each other for top honors on local tv shows. They create their own dance routines from all forms of musical rhythms. The tv disk personality welcomes these Dance Clubs because of assured professional type performances. In order to survive, all tv bandstand shows must eliminate the constant sameness of records programmed."

MGM To Hold Nat'l Distrib Meet In Chi July 22

NEW YORK—Irving Jerome, national sales manager of MGM Records, this week announced that MGM will hold its first national distributor convention in Chicago on July 22.

This will be simultaneous with the NAMM show, but will be held at night so as not to conflict with any NAMM program.

From current responses, says Jerome, there will be a 90 to 100% distributor attendance.

Much of the meeting will be presented in stereo. A great deal of planning has gone into this project in order to provide the distributors with an enlightening and entertaining meeting.

The entire MGM staff, headed by president Arnold Maxin and Vice president Jerome will be on hand to greet the distributors.

Jerome also announced that Bill Taylor will move from Dallas to take over as head of district sales and promotion for the mid-west. He will operate out of Chicago. Taylor replaces Don Forman, who resigned to go into another business outside of records. Gordon Grey also resigned from his post of district sales and promotion. His plans are undisclosed. Grey has not as yet been replaced.

Manson Elected President

NEW YORK—Arranger-composer-harmonica player Eddy Manson has been re-elected President of the American Society of Music Arrangers. Other officials elected include Gene Von Hallberg, re-elected Vice-President, Alan Schackner, Secretary, and George Cole, who was re-elected Treasurer.

In announcing ASMA's plans for the year, Manson stated the desire of the organization to help push legislation giving arrangers royalty rights as "co-composer of whatever he is working on."

How To Get A Hit

KEY WEST, Fla.—When Terri Stevens, RCA Victor thrush who was booked at the Casa Marine Hotel, this city, met some of baseball's top names, she and husband Arturo Cano decided to get some first hand information on "how to get a hit." Handing out the advice are Ed Yost, Washington third baseman, to the left of Terri, ace Philadelphia right-hander Robin Roberts on Terri's right, and Stan "The Man" Musial, one of baseball's all-time greats, to the extreme right. On the left is Cano, owner of New York nitery, The Boulevard.

"Only those records best suited for commercial use are reviewed by THE CASH BOX"

Lane Urges Publishers To Meet With Writers

NEW YORK—Burton Lane, president of the American Guild of Authors and Composers, issued the following statement to music publishers last week:

"Some publishers have chosen to air their grievances against the writers' organization, American Guild Of Authors And Composers, through the press. We, the writers, think this is childish and unfortunate and we do not intend to become involved in a running battle with those publishers through this public medium. As a matter of fact, we think, in the interests of all, that the only way to solve the problems that beset publishers and writers is to sit down together and talk things over in a mature fashion.

"I have read in the trade papers that some publishers have said they would refuse to sit down and discuss a new contract with AGAC unless the writers submitted written demands to them beforehand. Had we chosen to submit a list of demands to the publishers without requesting that both parties sit down and discuss our mutual problems, those self same publishers would have accused the writers of using high handed tactics and would have used that as an excuse not to negotiate. And they would have been right, for no one group can claim to know all the answers to all the problems, past and future, and thereby hope to solve them by submitting a one-sided list of demands.

"Just to put the record straight, I would like to quote from my statement to our members at our recent annual meeting in New York. I said, Contrary to many of the rumors which have been circulating about, it is not the aim of this organization to put music publishers out of business. We do not seek to arbitrarily impose conditions on publishers which are designed to hurt or to destroy them. It is precisely because we do not seek to arbitrarily impose conditions on publishers that we have taken the position that writers and publishers should sit down and discuss all existing problems and arrive at the proper solutions together.

"The American Guild Of Authors And Composers is an organization dedicated to the preservation of the rights of all writers of music and lyrics. For 27 years we have done business with music publishers and we are ready to do business with them for another 27 years. All we ask is that they recognize that writers have a continuing interest in the songs they write and in their administration even after the songs are published, and that the problems which the publishers face are faced by writers as well, and only by open and frank discussion can these problems be resolved.

"Therefore, we extend to all publishers an invitation to join with us to help solve the conditions which affect us all through democratic and open discussion. We believe this to be the constructive and the American way."

Billion A Year Predicted For Disk Phono Market

CHICAGO—More than 500 RCA Victor distributors and distributor salesmen from the Midwest were told last week that stereophonic sound equipment priced for the mass-market will soon push sales of recorded music and players to a billion dollars a year, an increase of 200 per cent over the last five years.

Robert A. Seidel, a former Chicago business man and now Executive Vice President, RCA Consumer Products, told the meeting which was held at the Conrad Hilton Hotel that the Radio Corporation of America will market new stereophonic sound products within the next few weeks which will "substantially reduce the cost for enjoyment of this new home entertainment medium."

The new products include stereophonic records, stereophonic tape in plastic loading magazines, and a line of "Victrola" phonographs to play the stereo records, and tape cartridges.

Trading Platters

NEW YORK—Morty Wax, independent promotion man (left) currently working on the Howard Lanin "Dance Time In Hi-Fi" LP and the J&S Record, "Grande Guitar," has been retained by Murray Kaufman (right) WINS dee jay, to do national promotion for his publishing firms Portrait Music and Royalty Music. Their current tunes are "Splish Splash" by Bobby Darrin on Atco and "Early In The Morning" by the Ding Dongs on Brunswick. Above the jockey and plugger are seen trading platters.

Roulette Forms New Label To Introduce New Game On Records

NEW YORK—Joe Kolsky, Executive Vice-President of Roulette Records, announced last week that the firm has created a new label in order to introduce an entirely new product idea on records. The idea is a game called "Co-Star" The Record Acting Game. Each album will feature a famous star of motion pictures, the theatre and television. The star will act out scenes from famous plays, motion pictures and novels as well as original material written especially for them. There will be open blank spaces provided on the record so that the buyer of the album can act out his or her part opposite the star. A script for this purpose will be enclosed in each album. The album will also feature the proper sound effects, background and cue music. The buyer listens as the narrator sets the scene and the star on the record acts his or her part. Then, on cue and according to the script, the buyer acts out the scene with the star.

Kolsky explained the game this way: "For the first time a record buyer becomes not just a listener, but is able to participate on the record and be part of it all. He or she has a chance to display his acting prowess and can play the part of the hero or heroine, villain or ingenue. Anyone who can read the script enclosed with the album can play the game."

Hugo & Luigi, Roulette's A&R Chiefs, who produced the Co-Star albums, stated, "Ever since the introduction of the LP, the record manufacturers have been improving records from a scientific aspect only. The big interest has been in getting a better and better sound. We believe that Co-Star provides a development in the material itself that is presented on records. It advances the use of the phonograph record to a new stage in home entertainment. This is a game that can be played at home alone or can be a party game for the family, friends and relatives."

Kolsky picked up the story from here to say, "From the viewpoint of the record industry, Co-Star opens the door to an entirely new untapped market for the dealer. Here is an item that is unlike any other album he carries on his shelves; an item that will create new profits, increase traffic and result in new customers who perhaps never frequented a record store before." The Co-Star album, he announced, will retail for $3.98.

Kolsky stated that Co-Star will be handled by the Roulette distributors all over the country. The firm has already prepared point of sale display matter, window streamers and give-away booklets for the distributors to give out to the dealers. He stated, "We went personally to every single distributor and his salesman with this item. We demonstrated Co-Star and everyone, without exception, waxed enthusiastic support for the product."

The first release of the new album line, due shortly, will include 15 albums. Among the stars featured will be: Basil Rathbone in scenes from "The Brothers Karamazov", Paulette Goddard in scenes from the best selling novel "Peyton Place", Tallulah Bankhead in scenes from "Lady Winchelsea's Fan", "Hedda Gabler" and other scenes; Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Vincent Price, Arlene Dahl, Fernando Lamas, George Raft, Don Ameche, "Slapsy" Maxie Rosenbloom, Virginia Mayo and June Havoc are also among the stars that will have an album out in the initial release. Also, Roulette has called upon two of the firm's top vocal stars, Jimmy Rodgers and Pearl Bailey, to be on Co-Star. In both Jimmie's and Pearl's album they will be heard acting out original scenes written especially for them. Roulette feels that there will be definite teen-age appeal in the Jimmie Rodgers album.

Roulette is also planning a heavy promotional campaign to put across the Co-Star story. They will be planting items in various newspaper columns and have arranged for feature stories in numerous consumer magazines. Plans also have been set to get Co-Star performed and plugged on various television shows. In September, the label will hit the thousands of college dramatic organizations as well as amateur theatre groups all over the country with a special mailing to tell the Co-Star story.

The company feels that besides its tremendous home entertainment value, Co-Star has a great educational value and interest for budding thespians everywhere.

Roulette has also set its sights on getting Co-Star into game stores and toy shops. It was pointed out that this avenue of retail sales will be handled by sales representatives appointed by Roulette. Also revealed was the fact that negotiations were currently under way to have Co-Star sell as a premium item with a number of large manufacturers.

In concluding, Kolsky stated: "We are convinced that we have developed a new product that will appeal to everyone. We think it will mean a tremendous amount of new billing for the record dealer and will bring to the record industry in general, a vital shot in the arm. We have high hopes for Co-Star and we think that the coming months will prove that these hopes were well founded."

Co-Star, The Record Acting Game, will be known as a product of Co-Star Records (a subsidiary of Roulette Records, Inc.)

The new line was previewed to the trade by Roulette executives via a lavish party held last week at one of New York's newest clubs, the Roundtable. Among the Co-Star artists in attendance were Paulette Goddard, Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Basil Rathbone, Fernando Lamas and Arlene Dahl.

Basil Rathbone demonstrated how the game was played by acting a role with his own recording. Comic Jack E. Leonard had the audience roaring when he read the script and ad libbed in hilarious fashion to Tallulah Bankhead's recording.

Leslie To Open 5th Branch

NEW YORK—Leslie Distributors, large eastern one-stop service, will add a fifth branch to its operations with the opening of a new outlet in Freeport, L. I. Lou Boorstein, Leslie prexy, also announced a contractual relationship with New York Wurlitzer distributor Sandy Moore, whereby Leslie will supply Moore's record needs, which amount to about 130,000 disks per year. The branch will be located in a building adjoining Moore's organization, which was, until recently, a retail record shop owned by Moore.

In disclosing these developments, Boorstein said "they expressed my confidence in the American economy, and, in particular, the record business despite the 'bedlam' in some corners." The big factors involved in the choice of the Freeport location were the recognition of the spot as a rapidly expanding area, and convenience to operators in the area. "We expect our Freeport operation," Boorstein noted, "to eventually duplicate the volume of sales in our New York City branch," a million dollar a year business according to the one-stop owner.

Though the store will be redesigned to accommodate operators, the outlet will begin service on Monday, June 23rd.

Leslie, which will mark its tenth year this fall, has branches in Pittsburgh, Newark, Hartford, and, of course, New York City.

NEW YORK—Jerry Field, Sales Manager of Cameo Records, announced Cameo's simultaneous entry into the LP and stereo field with three releases.

The all-instrumental stereo releases include "Dave Garraway's 50-Piece Orchestra," which features world-wide selections; "Alone Together" by the Dave Appell Quintet; and "Dizzy Fingers," which spotlights keyboard artist Bernie Leighton and His Orchestra.

The stereo releases are non-compatible.

Lester Lanin To Wed

NEW YORK—Lester Lanin, society bandman, and Epic recording star announced last week that he will wed his former secretary Marilyn Weiss of Austin, Texas on June 30th in York, South Carolina. The bride-to-be's father, Edwin Weiss, is the president of the Texas Business Development Investment Company.

Lanin, met his bride-to-be when she applied for a job—and was hired—as his private secretary eight months ago.

Following the marriage, the couple will honeymoon in Europe, where the bridegroom will also fulfill several commitments including the International Debutante Ball at the Palace of Versailles, near Paris, on July 11th.

Sycamore Signs Vocalist

HOLLYWOOD—Ralph Graves, Jr., president of Sycamore Records, announced last week that he had signed vocalist, Johnny Darcy to a long term contract.

Darcy's first platter for Sycamore is "Rockin' The Ark" b/w "Tombstone" with Nelson Riddle and his Orchestra. Two thousand promotional disks have been sent out.

A release date is set for sometime this month. The record will be packaged with a color jacket designed by Edward Kullifay, Hollywood artist. Darcy also has an upcoming LP, "Heart Songs," a collection of mostly standards arranged by Nelson Riddle.

"Gigi" Windows Galore

NEW YORK—Sol Handwerker, national promotion head of MGM Records, reports an unprecedented number of windows have been given over to the "Gigi" display by dealers in the New Yorker-New Jersey areas.

Similar arrangements are already being worked out in fifteen other areas where the motion picture "Gigi" has been booked for early June and late July.

The "Gigi" sales are growing steadily, reports Irving Jerome, national salesmanager, and "Gigi" is expected by MGM brass to become one of the best selling original film musical sound tracks yet released.

AGAC Adds 5 Writers

NEW YORK—At a Council meeting of the American Guild of Authors and Composers, five writers were added to the Council of the Guild. They are Johnny Burke, Sam Coslow, Eddie Eliscu, Jay Gorney, and Vic Mizzy.

Also at this meeting, Sammy Cahn was appointed Chairman of the West Coast Committee, with Donald Kahn serving as Co-Chairman.

Tobias Into Management

NEW YORK—Henry Tobias, songwriter and publisher, added personal management to his activities by signing three attractions to personal management contracts.

Those signed by Tobias, who also succeeded in getting them all record contracts, include Bobby Pedrick, Jr. (Big Top Records); Ritchie & His Classmates (Greenwich Records); and the Five Chords, who press for Tobias' own firm, Alvin Records.

Tobias recently returned to the music business after serving two years as Entertainment Director for Florida's Eden Roc Hotel.

Century Names Distribs

PITTSBURGH, PA.—Century Records prexy, Eddie Moschetti, has appointed the following distributors to handle the label: Seaboard, Albany, N. Y.; Cosnat, Newark, N. J.; Universe, Los Angeles, Calif.; Records, Inc., Boston, Mass.; Standard, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Malverne, New York City; Indianapolis, Indianapolis, Ind.; Choice, Kansas City, Mo.; Choice, St. Louis, Mo.; Choice, Omaha, Nebr.

Negotiations are now being made for world wide distribution. Century's current release is "My First Love" by the Tune Tailors.

Seeco Issues First Four Stereo Albums

NEW YORK—Seeco Records is rushing its first four stereo albums and will be shipping to distributors the week of June 23rd, Sidney Siegel, the label's prexy announced last week.

Siegel revealed that Seeco's price for stereo recordings will be $4.98. The initial stereo issue will comprise Jose Melis' best-selling LP "Tonight", Elsa Maxwell, Aldo Bruschi's "Enchantment Italy" and "Polkas Anyone" by the Triads Plus Two.

"The decision to get the stereo albums out now rather than wait till the fall", stated Sales Manager Abbott Lutz, "was made when a national poll of dealers and distributors disclosed an immediate demand. As a result of this feeling on the part of our customers, we have moved into stereo more than two months ahead of our original schedule. If these four sell well, we'll go into heavier stereo production."

Urania Signs Pact with French Diskery

NEW YORK—On his return from Europe last week, Sieg Bart, Urania Records' prexy, announced that President Records, of Paris, has signed an exclusive contract with Urania.

President Records will issue immediately in Europe, three LP's under its Urania series, and will continue to issue three to four LP's per month. The first stereo records in France will also be released immediately.

An arrangement has also been concluded for the recording of stereo tapes in Europe with President Records. Urania will furnish its own equipment and engineering personnel and the first of a series of recordings will be made with Rene Leibowitz in Paris, in the middle of June.

David Rothfeld, Urania Manager, will supervise the initial sessions and hold discussions regarding sales and repertoire with President Records and Paris Records. Rothfeld will also visit London for talks with Allied Records, Ltd., the British associates of Urania.

Dee Jay Forms New Label

BALTIMORE, MD.—WITH deejay Jack Gale has announced the forming of a new label, Clock Records, which will operate as a subsidiary of Gale's publishing firm, Jalo Music. Gale also owns Jalo and Snake Records, the former being distributed nationally by George Goldner. Separate distributors will be appointed for the Clock label with Mangold Distributors already the choice for the Baltimore-Washington, D. C. area.

The first release on Clock will be "Claire" by Tony Morra and the Bell-tones.

Royal Welcome

Conniff reported that he was amazed to find the tastes of the Australian public so much like that of the Americans. The top hits in Australia are the same as the hits in the U. S. only six months late. Conniff indicated that jockeys here watch the "U. S. proving grounds" like hawks and as soon as a record breaks the charts, the dee jays rush wires to the U. S. for copies of the disks. According to Conniff, the public, dee jays, etc., are starved for news about American artists and recordings.

There are only about 200 dee jays in all of Australia and Conniff spent a weekend with 60 of the leading platter spinners at the Surface Paradise resort. Coronet Records hosted the jockeys for the weekend.

The Conniff Orchestra was chosen the Most Promising Orchestra by dee jays in The Cash Box' 6th Annual Dee Jay Poll. (See Results Pgs. 8 and 9).

POPULAR

"JACKIE GLEASON PRESENTS RIFF JAZZ"—Capitol W 1020 (1-12" LP)

After solid jazz hints in "Romantic Jazz," and "Velvet Brass," Gleason makes his most advanced venture into jazz. The performer has not discarded the use of strings, but employs them as a novel back-drop. In front, four top-jazz names (Hank Jones, Piano; Charlie Shavers, trumpet; Jimmy Cleveland, trombone; and Charlie Ventura, sax) lead the way in sixteen free-swinging bursts. Gleason partially penned all numbers. A pop-jazz market is likely to put this package high on the charts.

"101 STRINGS PLAY THE BLUES"—Somerset P-5800 (1-12" LP)

Sales of this entry have already reached chart proportions. The disk features the ork's massive string sounds, logically aided in this blues program by a trumpet, sax and keyboard, on a bill of eight blues items, including "St. Louis Blues" (the waxing is a tribute to W. C. Handy), "Frankie And Johnny," and "Blues In The Night." Disk, of course, is an instrumental stock must at $1.98.

"GOD'S LITTLE ACRE"—Music Composed And Conducted By Elmer Bernstein—United Artists UAL 40002 (1-12" LP)

This sound-track from the flick based on the earthy Erskine Caldwell novel sensation is United Artists' most potent issue yet. The film has an Elmer ("The Man With The Golden Arm") Bernstein score, which in a mostly jazz-tinged vein promotes the atmosphere of the flick's locale, the South. A major sound-track entry.

"BERLIN BY LOMBARDO"—Guy Lombardo And His Royal Canadians—Capitol T 1019 (1-12" LP)

Lombardo probably has his strongest Capitol effort in this forty-song tribute to master Berlin. Berlin ballads, even Berlin novelties have a ring which makes them particularly applicable to Lombardo fox-trot arrangements. Though the number of tunes is generous, they each receive a complete run-through in continuous ork fashion. Lombardo and Berlin at their best.

"DREAM DUST"—Gordon Jenkins And His Chorus—Capitol T 1023 (1-12" LP)

Jenkins relies on a chorus-combo rather than a full ork to convey a mood music message. With the instrument crew (Jenkins at the keyboard) setting a Latin-beat pattern, the ensemble caresses such fine mainstays as "I'll Remember April," "Yours," "Time Was," and nine other suitable ballads. Far above par vocal mood offering.

"SOUNDS OF THE GREAT BANDS!"—Glenn Gray And The Casa Loma Orchestra—Capitol W 1022 (1-12" LP)

In two previous Capitol efforts, Gray and the ork set a society-like dance pace with fine sales results. Here, representative arrangements of sixteen top swing-era bands (Glenn Miller, Duke Ellington, Tommy Dorsey, Artie Shaw, etc.), skillfully bow to nostalgia though still managing to hint at the polished Casa Loma format. Important band inventory.

"WALT DISNEY'S STORY OF 'ALICE IN WONDERLAND'" — Told By Darlene-Disneyland ST 3909 (1-12" LP)

The package is another delight in the fine Disney kiddie series, which recalls the story and songs of Disney productions. Darlene Gillespie, a Mickey Mouse Club regular, narrates the Alice tale, and sings such warm melodies as "In A World Of My Own," and "All In A Golden Afternoon." A chorus and ork attractively solo on others like "T'was Brilling," "The Walrus And The Carpenter," and "Unbirthday Song." Verbally described color scenes from the pic handsomely grace the book-type package. A must for the kiddie shelf.

"TITO PUENTE SWINGS AND VICENTICO VALDES SINGS"—Tico LP-1049 (1-12" LP)

The meeting of name Latin ork leader and vocalist gives the waxing a secure spot on the Latin shelf. Twelve Latin originals make-up the takes, and the Puente-Valdes interpretations involve both fast-moving and relaxed cha cha readings. Puente often has a jazz-like intersection in his orchestrations. Important session for the Latin trade.

"GOIN' TO KANSAS CITY BLUES"—Jimmy Witherspoon With Jay McShann And His Band—RCA Victor LPM-1639 (1-12" LP)

The disk reunites Witherspoon with the ork he served as vocalist from '44 to '48. For the host of blues fans this new association provides an excellent program of blues favorites ("Confessin' The Blues," "Until The Real Thing Comes Along," "Jumpin' The Blues") sung and played to heart felt-wailing perfection by the artists. Will be regarded as a treasured waxing by purchasers.

"MARGARET"—Margaret Whiting—Dot DLP 3113 (1-12" LP)

Miss Whiting's second LP effort for Dot is a country-blues change of tune from her previous, robust performances on "Goin' Places." Reflecting the lark's mood here are the presence of six Hank Williams' items, including "Cold Cold Heart," "Half As Much," and "I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry." A pro at the wistful way, Miss Whiting adds a fine, pop coloring to the bill. First-rate programming material.

"LADY FINGERS"—Ethel Smith, Organ-Decca DL 8744 (1-12" LP)

One of the organ's best pop friends, Miss Smith is in delightfully good humor on a bill tailor-made for a musical joke. Such pieces as "Kitten On The Keys," "Seventy Six Trombones," "In An Eighteenth Century Drawing Room," and "Rockin' The Scale" provide Miss Smith with the stuff organ-fun is made of. Disk is a winning attraction to the organ crowd.

"HIGH UPON A MOUNTAIN"—Eddie Albert—Dot DLP 3109 (1-12" LP)

The Eddie Albert singing voice may not conquer worlds, but it does possess a basic honesty—an honesty the program of assuring melodies here necessitates. Selections range from the light "The Best Things In Life Are Free" to the dramatic Rodgers-Hammerstein opus "You'll Never Walk Alone." Milt Rogers directs the warm ork-chorus arrangements. Fine inspirational waxing.

"LET'S DANCE WITH RAY HENRY"—Ray Henry And The Orchestra—Dana DLP 1258 (1-12" LP)

The oft-recorded Dana polka prize sets a typically jovial polka-oberek pace. Featuring twelve numbers, ten penned by Henry, the disk is another Dana enterprise supplying polka lovers with a constant supply of new releases.

"SOCIETY DANCE MUSIC BY WITKOWSKI"—Stella S-LP 912 (1-12" LP)

The pick-yourself-up pace of society dance steps is rendered by the Bernie Witkowski ork in a manner ably reflective of the style. Witkowski wisely fills a variety of dance floor requests including the fox-trot, tango, waltz, and mambo. The ten selections are mostly evergreens, and in two instances, Witowski composed items. Reliable dance disk issue.

Album Reviews

"THAT'S ME ALL OVER!"—Gypsy Rose Lee—Westminster WP 6093 (1-12" LP)

A collection of tunes with either single, and or double entendre meanings are performed by the burlesque artist in manner more inclined to recitation than actual singing. The songs include several from such pros as Rodgers-Hart ("The Heart Is Quicker Than The Eye"); Cole Porter ("I Sleep Easier Now") and Leonard Bernstein ("I Can Cook Too"). Cover carries a "Restricted From Airplay" notation. Disk generally approaches sex with taste.

"LOLA FISHER—FROM HERE TO YONDER"—Cadence CLP 4002 (1-12" LP)

Miss Fisher is the lass who on many occasions ably subbed for Julie Andrews in "My Fair Lady," and who currently plays Eliza Doolittle in a "Lady" touring company. The husband-wife song-writing team, Noel and Gloria Regney, have provided Miss Fisher with twelve original tunes that glow with a melodic Elizabethan-like charm. The singer captures their pastoral flavoring sweetly and with a keen sense for the folk song. Archie Bleyer directs the warm ork backing. Appealing vocals for folk-show music traffic.

"DANCE TIME IN PARIS"—Chauncey Gray And His Orchestra—Judson J 3022 (1-12" LP)

This is Gray's second effort for Judson (a Gray package is also available on Judson's affiliate, Riverside). The bill consists of fourteen melodies from France (including Cole Porter's "C'est Magnifique") performed in bright fox-trot arrangements by the crew. Some of the familiar items: "Autumn Leaves," "La Mer," "April In Portugal," "Under Paris Skies." Expertly fashioned society dance disk.

JAZZ

"BUT NOT FOR ME"—Ahmad Jamal Trio At The Pershing—Argo LP 628 (1-12" LP)

Sales potential here is enhanced by the r&b success of the "Music Music Music" side. The waxing is pianist Jamal's third Argo package, an impressive, uptempo-inclined affair cut at Chicago's "Pershing Lounge." On eight ever-green items, Jamal, plus a bassist and drummer, resourcefully romp through "Surrey With The Fringe On Top," "Wood'n You," "But Not For Me," and, of course, "Music Music Music." There are pauses for mellow readings of "What's New," and "Moonlight In Vermont." Also, there's an exciting Afro-Cuban bow on the extended "Poinciana." Fine sound. Disk's tie-in with the "Music Music Music" single makes this a must dealer item.

"A JAZZ DATE WITH CHRIS CONNOR"—Atlantic 1286 (1-12" LP)

Dealers are afforded prime jazz-vocal stock in this generally lightly swinging package. Well-equipped with class material ("Everything I've Got," "I'm Shooting High," "It Only Happens When I Dance With You"), and tasteful George Sharon arrangements, Miss Connor takes her vocal chores in ever-inventive stride. Personnel on the date include Al Cohn, Osie Johnson, Oscar Pettiford, Eddie Costa and Sam Most, and others.

"COFFEE, CIGARETTES & MEMORIES"—Jeri Southern—Roulette R-25039 (1-12" LP)

A what-could-have-been attitude comes across with expected expressiveness by the jazz thrush, who has a long disk history of taking the moody vocal course. In typical jazz-vocal taste, Miss Southern recites some of the more literate popular-art songs ("Yesterdays," "Spring Will Be A Little Late This Year," "I'll Never Be The Same"). The Lennie Hayton ork is a sympathetic companion to the artist. Top-drawer inventory for the jazz vocal shelf.

"JAZZ UNDER THE DOME"—The Freddy Merkle Group—Vik LX-1114 (1-12" LP)

The outfit is a Washington D.C. attraction, and offers lots of expert jazz selling points on its Vik debut. Headed by drummer Merkle, the group, alternating on a five and eleven man basis goes about its business on a mostly bright swing band basis. Keyboard artist on the date, Bill Potts supplied the inventive penmanship on both the arrangements and the ten numbers. Rewarding jazz sessions.

JOHNNY GRIFFIN SEXTET
DONALD BYRD
PEPPER ADAMS
KENNY DREW
WILBUR WARE
PHILLY JOE JONES

"JOHNNY GRIFFIN SEXTET"—With Donald Byrd, Pepper Adams, Kenny Drew, Wilbur Ware, Philly Joe Jones—Riverside RLP 12-264, 1-12" LP)

The cohesive contributions made by the stellar jazz line-up on this offering result in a collection of smartly swinging takes. Leading the way on his first Riverside starring role, Griffin engagingly sports his tenor sax in excellent words with the likes of bassist Ware, pianist Drew and drummer Jones. "What's New" is the only reflective spot on the waxing. Class jazz issue.

CLASSICAL

MOUSSORGSKY-RAVEL: Pictures At An Exhibition—Fritz Reiner Conducting The Chicago Symphony Orchestra—RCA Victor LM-2201 (1-12" LP)

Another edition in the hefty "Pictures At An Exhibition" catalogue, the tour of the Hartmann collection by Reiner and the Chicago Symphony here is outstanding in musical expression, and brilliance of sound. "Pictures" best hi-fi representative, "The Great Gate Of Kiev," is the all-convincing sound demonstration. A reading of the work that's going to be sought by many.

MENDELSSOHN: A Midsummer Night's Dream (Overture, Scherzo, Nocturne, Wedding March)—SCHUBERT: Rosamunde (Overture, Entr'acte No. 2, Ballet Music No. 2)—George Szell Conducting The Concertgebouw Orchestra Of Amsterdam—Epic LC 3433 (1-12" LP)

Because both works have ingratiatingly sunny dispositions, they are fitting disk companions. They are superbly well-met under the baton of Szell and the ork, who seem to have fallen under the spell of the pieces. Excellent sound. Though the disk has some keen competition, excellence of performance and appropriate coupling will turn many in its direction.

TCHAIKOVSKY-MENDELSSOHN—Violin Concertos—Christian Ferras, Violin—Constantin Silvestri Conducting The Philharmonia—Angel 35606 (1-12" LP)

The two works, of course, are long-standing catalogue favorites, and are available on some notable readings (Heifetz, Francescatti, Milstein). Ferras' violin work provides the concertos with a vehicle for a proper, romantic ride. There are a great deal of lyrical and technical rewards in the young violinist's interpretations. Coupling of the concertos is an added attraction to the artistic values here.

DEBUSSY: La Mer—Nocturnes—Concertgebouw Orchestra of Amsterdam—Eduard Van Beinum, Conductor—Epic LC 3464 (1-12" LP)

Debussy's famed masterpieces of musical impressionism are in the hands of a gifted orchestra, and it is hardly surprising that the orchestra reads the challenging works with a profusion of beautifully striking orchestral shadings. Haunting moods and unforgettable climaxes are achieved with great sensitivity and power respectively. Splendid sound. Memorable performances.

"JOHN SEBASTIAN PLAYS BACH"—Sonata No. 1 In B Minor For Flute And Piano—Sonata No. 2 In E Flat For Flute and Piano—With Paul Ulanowsky, Pianist—Sonata In A Minor For Solo Flute—John Sebastian, Harmonica—Columbia ML 5264 (1-12" LP)

In substituting the harmonica for the flute in these three works, Sebastian has retained, with musical values particular to the harmonica, the lyrical glow of all three. The instrument has never made such a worthy account of itself on disks as it does here. Excellent sound. A pure delight.

Ramblings

NEW YORK:

Now that some companies are already planning stereo 45-disks, we hear two pluggers are being sent out on each release. One for the highs and one for the lows. . . . We just hope that things don't get so confusing that the right hand speaker doesn't know what the left hand speaker is doing. . . . And what happens if the highs break in Cleveland and the lows in Philadelphia? . . . Do you want to hear about the stormy adventures of Captain Al Silver, Herald Records, his good ship "H.M.S. Bounty"? Silver just purchased a thirty year old fishing vessel from a Nova Scotia fisherman and it was delivered in New York last week. The fact that it was a 42' long 15' beam never fazed the dauntless Silver who had never even driven a 3½ horsepower outboard. The intrepid Silver donned his admiral uniform, tooted his horn, and steamed out to sea with Jerry Shifrin, Roulette Records, as his first mate. Not twenty feet from the dock, Silver came out from under a bridge 10 feet shorter than when he entered. His first mishap was when he knocked off his mast. This, however, did not stop the valiant Silver and the bold Shifrin. They steamed merrily along until Silver, endeavoring to put the gears into neutral ended up with the stick in his hand separated from the gears. The boat moved steadily ahead with Shifrin guiding its course and Silver frantically breaking off a broomhandle from a broom and whittling it to a sharp edge so that he could insert it into the gears. The fearless friends, not to be thwarted, decided to continue in spite of their difficulties. They were out to fish and fish they would. However, because of the shift troubles they did not stop the engine but continued to idle in neutral. This was fine, except they used up so much gas in idling they ran out on the way home. Troubles were made to be overcome so the beset duo managed to swing a deal with another vessel and they were homeward bound. Things went beautifully and soon they were in sight of the dock. A good sized crowd gathered to watch Silver take a couple of swipes out of the dock before he brought her to. As they climbed off the boat, after cutting a V in the pier, one of the weatherbeaten watchers walked over to Silver, patted him on the shoulder, and said, "That's a sturdy ship you have there, fella. I knew you couldn't sink her." . . . Izzy Grove was introduced to the trade by Freed at a cocktail party at the 1619 Broadway offices. . . . Alan Freed begins his Channel 5 TV show on June 23 from 5-6. He takes over the time from Herb Sheldon who moves over to WNTA-Newark, N. J. . . . Long distance call from Leo Mesner, Aladdin Records, to tell us about his new Thurston Harris release. Mesner is particularly high on "Smokey Joe's" for hitdom. . . . George Hudson (WNJR-Newark, N. J.) getting ready for his Second Annual Down Home Party at the Laurel Gardens, Newark, N. J. Leading the all-star roster will be B. B. King and Lee Hooker. Last year Hudson drew 5,000 to his first party and hopes to even better that figure this year. The WNJR deejay has six hours across the board. . . . Ed Portnoy and Stan Feldman, Ivy Records, just overheard in love with their newest group, "The Melodears." The trio consists of Millie, Annette and Maddy, seniors at the Wellington C. Mephram High School in Belmore, L. I. Though busy with school work and extra curricular activities, they still find time to practice every day and stay at the top of their class scholastically. Their first release on Gone, "Charock," was written and a & r'd by writer of "Wheel of Fortune" and many other hits, George Weiss and produced by Portnoy and Feldman. Initial excitement, they tell us, is excellent. . . . Getting back to Al Silver, the Herald-Ember headman treks to Europe with his wife on June 29. He will, however, not go by his "H.M.S. Bounty." "Op" by The Honeycones on Ember looking more and more like a hit with every passing day. Doug Moody tells us they have signed an all-girl group, The Desires. Doug also reports new releases out soon on The Five Satins and The Silhouettes. On Herald Johnny Hartman makes his bow with "No Tears Tomorrow" and "You Gotta Believe and Be Happy." Also Joe Dixon with "Carolina Moon" and "Should I" . . . Harold Drayson, national sales manager of Cub Records, working hard to kick off the new label's threesome just released. They are "I Got Fired" by The Chesterfields; "Kingdom of Love" and "Vanishing Angel" by The Preludes; and "Loneliness" and "Do You Love Her" by The Impressors. Drayson says all distribs and disk jockeys have been covered and promotion is all out on all three waxes. . . . Sol Handwerker, national promotion head of MGM, thinks "Purple People Eater" by

Sheb Wooley, went into the nation's number one spot faster than any other record ever released. Without checking, we think he's wrong. If memory serves correctly Elvis Presley's "Love Me Tender" may have been faster. "Purple People Eater" made number one in three frantic weeks. Handwerker's desk is covered with clippings of free promotion that has heaped itself on this fabulous disk. Newspaper reproductions of readers conceptions of what a "Purple People Eater" is. Pictures of college students dressed up as "Purple People Eaters," and innumerable radio contests. As an example, Tony Larson (KUDY-Denver, Colo.) reports he got over 500 replies to his "P.P.E." contest in three days. . . . Shirley Millman, veepee Irv Jerome's pretty secretary, was the object of a surprise birthday party in her office last week. MGM offices were also the scene of a champagne party just prior to Arnold Maxin's flight to Europe. . . . Vito Samela, Capitol

Distributors, happy with the new offices at 317 W. 44th St. Capitol and Angel are now combined under one roof. Samela reports that his leading sellers are "Return To Me," Dean Martin; "Looking Back," Nat King Cole; "Devotion," Janice Harper; and "Torero," Renato Carasone. Samela reports Capitol will show its new phono line at the Savoy Plaza, 3 to 9, on June 19 and 20. Tommy Chianti, who did the choreography for "Hand Jive," demonstrated his dance on Jim Gallant's New Haven TV show, Dave Maynard's Boston TV show, and Buddy Deane's Baltimore TV show. . . . Lee Gallo has signed up a new group, The Royal-Aires, soon to be released on the Gallo label. Titles are "Baby, Baby" and "Friendship Ring." Gallo is also excited about Lee Clark's soon to be released "Kiss The Girls Goodbye." The latter is published by Larry Uhal's Monument pubbery. . . . Carlton's Johnny Janis, whose "The Better To Love

You" is stirring up noise in Chicago, will appear on The Dick Clark Show June 23. Johnny Oliver, whose Carlton Record "Tom, Dick and Harry" is starting to move well, was asked to lip-read his release five times on the Milt Grant WTTG-TV show in Washington, D.C. . . . Sam Weiss, Superior Record Sales, reports that three singles started to break in the New York area this week. They are "Rebel Rouser" by Duane Eddy on Jamie; "All The Way" by Riff Ruffin on Old Town; and "Itchy Twitchy Feeling" by Bobby Hendricks on Sue. In addition, Argo has come up with a hit LP—"But Not For Me" featuring Ahmad Jamal. . . . John Safari, host of the Long Island nitery, The Safari, has announced the engagement of Alan Lorber as A&R head for Safari Records. Lorber's first assignment will be to cut Madeline Kern, signed to Safari for two years. . . . Elliot Blaine tells us his Cosnat racking up sales with "Jennie Lee" by Jan & Arnie on Arwin; "Do You Want To Dance" by Bobby Freeman on Josie and "You" by The Aquatones on Fargo. . . . Jolly Joyce reports Bill Haley and The Comets have been booked solid through July. . . . Lew Krefitz and Jesse Stone, Poplar Records, making the rounds with The Clovers' "The Gossip Wheel" and Jesse Stone's "The Stash" and "Tall and Short." . . . Ernie Young starting to get a strong reaction to his recording of "Jackie" by Janice Green. Heavy reorders have been coming in from Detroit, Atlanta, Memphis and Chicago. Miss Green was the femme voice heard on the Crescendos' Nasco hit disk, "Oh Julie." . . . Bobby Blue Bland and Little Junior Parker in for special sessions and chit-chat with boss Don Robey. Robey is excited about his new find, "Chester Honky Dory" McDowell out of Memphis via WLOK.

CHICAGO:

The consensus of opinion along Record Row is that wax sales are gradually climbing, and the Fall forecast is very optimistic. . . . Music Distrib's Jack Solinger minces no words in telling us that Sheb Wooley is just about the most popular guy there, especially since his big deck sold over 150,000 in the

CHUCK BERRY

Chi area alone, according to Jack. Sheb is now hard at work filming a Western TV series in Arizona titled "Rawhide." . . . Deejay Dan Sorkin (WCFL-Chicago, Ill.) personally flew Mercury recording artists Gino and Gina throughout the midwest on their promotion tour in one of his planes. Danny is one of the owners of the High Winds Air Transport Service. . . . All-State Distrib's Paul Glass announced the appointment of Records Unlimited in Milwaukee as subsidiary distributor in all of Wisconsin for All-State Records. Don Smith is very happy about it all. . . . Earl Glickens wife was operated on at South Chicago Community Hospital, and is doing very well according to today's report. . . . King Distrib's Herb Kole tells us that "rebel" Bill Bolden was converted to the Yankee cause this week. Bill assures us he won't fight the Civil War anymore. On the serious side, Herb reports that Bill Doggett appears on The Dick Clark Show, June 21. Bill and Lorez Alexandria come into the swank Roberts Show Lounge June 26. . . . Deejay Sam Evans (WGES-Chicago, Ill.) chucks his radio chores for two wonderful weeks of deep sea fishing along the shores of Cape Cod. His family will accompany him there. . . . Jerry Allan, fresh out of sick bay, tells us that the Dukes of Dixieland's number seven album is merrily swingin' along the deejay trail and response is terrific. . . . Now that Jerry Ferber, United Distrib's, is fully recovered from recent surgery, the only thing the docs insist he give up is wrestling (and Jerry weighs every bit of 100 lbs.). Jerry informs us that United's Ernie Leaner is airborne to N'Yawk on biz. . . . Don Gold was recently upped to managing editor of Downbeat mag. . . . Chess A&R genius Paul Gayten is all aglow over Chuck Berry's new release, and he expects it to go all the way. . . . Vee-Jay's genial Abner is prepping a recording session with The Five Blind Boys, who he says are one of the hottest spiritual groups in the nation. The Impressions, currently on tour, make their first paid public appearance at the Apollo in N. Y. June 13, for one week.

LOS ANGELES:

Dooto Recording artists, The Penguins, will appear on the "Hunter Hancock Record Hop" at Jordan High School on June 27th. . . . Chess Records acquired the master of "You Got Me Whistling" by Johnnie Fuller from the Crazy label for national release. . . . Nat King Cole making a number of appearances along the West Coast before a weeks engagement in Washington, D. C. July 7-13, after which he will take a well earned months vacation at his Los Angeles home. . . . Irv Shorten of Allied Distributors has a big one in "I Love You So" by the Chantels on End Records. . . . The initial waxings by Sonny Till and Austin Cromer for Roulette Records out this past week. . . . The Milton Deutch Agency set a tour of the Hawaiian Islands for Flip recording artists The Six Teens during which they will appear on a big rock and roll show in Honolulu. . . . Tunes from Ricky Nelson's two new Imperial EP's "Poor Little Fool" and "Shirley Lee" are giving the hottest singles a run for their money in the San Francisco Bay Area. . . . During his three week engagement at the Crescendo, Count Basie and his orchestra will make a one night appearance at Pasadena Civic Auditorium June 21st which looks like a complete sell out. This is Basie's first appearance on the West Coast in a number of years. . . . Songstress Thelma Carpenter a dark horse for one of the leading roles in the movie remake of "Imitation Of Life." . . . Miniature boxes of Smith Brothers Cough Drops arriving in the mail with sample copies of Ensign's release of "River Rock" by "Froggy" Landers and the Coughdrops. . . . Leon Rene believes Bobby Day's new Class recording of "Rockin' Robin" will 'rock' right up to the top of the charts with the enthusiasm shown by the disk-jockeys and distributors throughout the country. . . . The Modern Jazz Quartet making their first appearance locally after their very successful European tour are packing them in at the Interlude on the Sunset Strip. . . . Jean Bennett and Buck Ram rejoined The Platters in Italy before moving on to the Brussels World Fair where they filmed their hit "Twilight Time" for the Ed Sullivan television show. . . . David Seville's followup to his latest hit for Liberty Records, "Witch Doctor", "The Bird On My Head", is taking off with strength.

Sky's The Limit

CHICAGO — Not only is their current Mercury Recording of "Pretty Baby" heading for the expanses of upper-chartdom, but Gino & Gina, the two young singers from Uniondale, Long Island, have suddenly found themselves spending more time in the air than on the ground. The talented brother and sister act have visited almost every major city on behalf of their record. Disk Jockey Dan Sorkin of Radio Station WCFL waved his magic wand, which in reality is a Beechcraft Bonanza Aircraft, owned by Dan's "High Winds" Air Charter Company. Sorkin's plane can depart and land at more centrally located metropolitan airports, which proved to be a tremendous time saver for Gino & Gina on their tour. Pictured here at Meigs Field in Chicago are Gina, Gino, and Dan Sorkin alighting after their trip from St. Louis.

N. Y. Record Distrib Opens

NEW YORK—Manny Wells, formerly with a major New York retail discount operation, announced the opening of the New York Record Distributors, Inc., a complete "one stop record service," on Tuesday, June 17, 1958. The wholesaler will cater solely to coin-box operators, department stores and all record dealers, with large quantities of records of every label and speed.

Wells states that his record service will be dedicated to the selling principle: "Your Wholesale Distributor, Not Your Competitor." In celebration of the opening, many special offerings will be made. Over 100 new release LP's will always be on open-face display.

"Service will always be a guide-word," continues Wells. "Free parking will be provided for the convenience of our customers. Buyers, if they choose, can take advantage of our new self-service policy." Free title strips for juke box operators will be provided in addition to many other wholesaler services.

The New York Record Distributors, Inc., is located at 447 10th Avenue, between 34th and 35th Streets, New York.

R&B POLL RESULTS

Each disk jockey listed three choices in each category. Three points were awarded for each first choice, two points for each second choice, and one point for each third choice. Of the total number of points cast, the following is the percentage each artist received. The maximum an artist could possibly receive was 50% since even if every disk jockey voted the same artist number one, it would still add up to only 50% of the six points available in each category.

"Gene-Ager's" Club

DALLAS, Tex.—A group of Dallas girls, have become enamored over singer Gene Summers after hearing and seeing him on radio and television, decided that he had more all-around girl-appeal than any other singer. So they decided to form a national "Gene-Ager" Club and caught the unaware singer as he was leaving a record hop. Each girl's initiation shows plainly in above photo. Asked what he thought about club, Gene's only comment was "Wow!" The artist, who kicked up some territorial dust with his initial Jan waxing of "Straight Skirts," had a new release, last week, tagged "Nervous."

14 New Recordings In Angel June Release

HOLLYWOOD—Angel Records offers, for the month of June, 14 new recordings.

In the field of lieder and choral works, Dietrich Fischer-Dieskau, baritone, with the Philharmonia Orchestra under the direction of Wilhelm Furtwangler, is heard in the song cycle by Gustav Mahler, "Songs of a Wayfarer." The reverse side of this record is devoted to a collection of Brahms Lieder.

A collection of choral music by Purcell and Bach, featuring the Geraint Jones Singers and Orchestra makes available a first recording of the "Music for the Funeral of Queen Mary" and, in the English tradition, a performance of the "Magnificat" of Bach.

Andre Cluytens, noted French conductor, conducts the Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra in the Seventh Symphony of Beethoven and the "Egmont" Overture.

Witold Malcuzyński, the Polish virtuoso, couples his talents with conductor Nicolai Malko and the French National Radio Orchestra in Tchaikovsky's "Concerto in B Flat."

One of the mainstays of the classical tradition in the performance of piano and orchestral music for 40 years or more has been Edwin Fischer. His newest recording features Fischer as pianist and conductor of the "Concerto No. 20," by Mozart and the "Brandenburg Concerto No. 5" of J. S. Bach, both with the Philharmonic Orchestra.

Also presented as both soloist and conductor is Jose Iturbi, with the Paris Conservatoire Orchestra, who plays and conducts the "Piano Concerto No. 22 in E Flat," by Mozart.

George Solchany, a countryman of the composer, plays a Bartok program of wide variety.

Another release includes four works for three and four harpsichords. The soloists are accompanied by the Pro Arts Orchestra, conducted by Boris Ord. The artists on this record have made a study of music from the 17th and 18th centuries in order to bring a high degree of authenticity to their recordings and public performances.

Two young musicians combine their talents on another package. Janos Starker, for the past several seasons first cellist with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, and Carlo Maria Giulini, the young Italian conductor, along with the Philharmonia Orchestra, display their talents in the cello concertos of Saint-Saens and Schumann.

Christian Ferras, young French violinist, in his American record debut, presents two popular concertos for violin, the Tchaikovsky "Concerto in D Major" and the Mendelssohn "Concerto in E Minor." The Philharmonia Orchestra is conducted by European conductor, Constantin Silvestri.

For ballet enthusiasts, Angel has two complete works for June. The first complete recording of Giselle on two records, is performed by the Royal Opera House Orchestra, Covent Garden, conducted by Yuri Fayer, who is the principal conductor of the Bolshoi Theatre Ballet (Moscow). "The Three-Cornered Hat" (also complete) of De Falla is a contemporary Spanish work for which Angel engaged the Spanish mezzo-soprano Consuelo Rubio and the conductor, Eduardo Toldra, with the French National Radio Orchestra.

The final two records on the Angel June release present "Viennese Mood Music" and an album of Gypsy music.

R & B Reviews

A AWARD & SLEEPER

B VERY GOOD

B+ EXCELLENT

C+ GOOD

D MEDIOCRE

"Only those records best suited for commercial use are reviewed by THE CASH BOX"

SLEEPY KING'S ORCH.

(Sue 704)

B "ONE LEG WOMAN" (2:05) [Andrea ASCAP—David E. Parker] Sleepy King's Orchestra dishes up a down home quick beat jump with a swingy treatment that comes through ok. Cute novelty rocker.

C+ "COME BACK DARLING" (2:17) [Andrea ASCAP—David E. Parker] Another country offering. A slow beat blues handled effectively. Should find its best reception in the southern markets.

JIMMY INMAN and THE IMPOLLOS

(Aladdin 3426)

B+ "YOU NEVER REALIZED" (2:31) [Aladdin/Kenny Marlow BMI—Ron Isle] Jimmy Inman and The Impollos swing out with an intriguing sound and melody as they turn in good performances of a quick beat bouncer ballad. Deck has lots of appeal and should be watched carefully.

B+ "I'M SO SORRY" (1:56) [Aladdin/Kenny BMI—Bobby Russell] Inman and The Impollos drift tenderly along on a slow beat ballad. Melodious and pleasing. It's a head-tails proposition with both decks. We like them equally well.

PHIL MEDLEY & ORCH.

(Mercury 17082)

B+ "JO-BLO" (2:49) [Prime BMI] Phil Medley & Orchestra turn in a moody reading of a slow beat instrumental blues. Medley paints a dark blue-purple picture and he drifts lazily along.

B "FLAPJACK" (2:27) [Prime BMI] Medley ups the tempo to middle beat here and the arrangement is a shade more on the swingy side—but basically it captures the same mood. Two good listening decks.

STICKS AND BRICKS

(Josie 227)

B+ "KISS THE PRETTY GIRL TWICE" (1:58) [Benell BMI—Sticks Evans] Sticks and Bricks team on a swinging quick beat that comes off very strong. Deck is lively in rhythm and spirit. Could take off into the hit category. Watch it carefully.

B+ "IT'S MY HEART" (2:23) [Benell BMI—Sticks Evans] Sticks and Bricks offer a slow beat rhythm ballad on the flip. Another goodie in melody and treatment. Should appeal to the kids and young at heart. Two excellent decks that have the potential.

BO DIDDLEY

(Checker 896)

B "DEAREST DARLING" (2:44) [Arc BMI—E. McDaniels] Bo Diddley swings out in inspired fashion as he tells his quick beat story. Diddley is an exciting performer and it comes through on wax. Ok side.

B+ "HUSH YOUR MOUTH" (2:41) [Arc BMI—E. Daniels] Diddley really goes to town on this quick beat deck and unmistakably makes this the side. This is the Bo Diddley of the hits and he is wild. Watch this deck—it is loaded.

The Cash Box Award o' the Week

"SMOKEY JOES" (1:55) [Aladdin BMI—Thurston Harris]

"ONLY ONE LOVE IS BLESSED" (2:35) [Porgie BMI—Henry Cager]
THURSTON HARRIS (Aladdin 3428)

● Thurston Harris comes up with a self-penned ditty, "Smokey Joe's" that has the novelty effect and treatment to kick it into the hits. Harris wails with that approved quality that gave him "Little Bitty Pretty One." It is a strong offering that bears close watching. Harris may have another chart item. The flip, "Only One Love is Blessed," is a very pretty ballad in which Harris tells his romantic and sentimental story with telling effect. Pleasing, melodic wax. However, we go for the novelty bouncer, "Smokey Joe's."

"ALL THE WAY" (2:42) [Cash BMI—J. Gray]

"I CAN'T GET A THRILL WITHOUT YOU" (2:43)
[Money BMI—J. Gray]

RIFF RUFFIN ORCH. (Old Town 1055)

● Riff Ruffin, sounding very much like Ray Charles on this disking, "All The Way," comes through with a very powerful reading of the slow, rhythmic blues. Material is very strong, choral support and Ruffin's treatment give the entire production a feeling of the spiritual. Deck has a powerful potential. Watch it very carefully. The flip, "I Can't Get A Thrill Without You," is a slow beat ballad performed by Ruffin in his stylized manner. Deck is impressive but without the overall appeal of "All The Way."

"GATES OF HEAVEN" (2:40) [End BMI—Truscott, Taylor]

"SOMEONE TO LOVE ME" (2:43)
[Real Gone BMI—Baxter, McNeil, Bragg]

RONNIE BAXTER (Gone 5036)

● Ronnie Baxter makes his debut on Gone a powerful offering that could establish him as a top selling performer. His entry, "Gates of Heaven," is a slow beat dramatic ballad in which his full voice and emotional delivery stand him in good stead. Pretty material deftly handled. We look to it to make plenty of noise. Watch it. The coupling, "Someone To Love Me," is a middle beat rocker for the peppy Teenagers. Good dance item, and entertaining listening. Two good decks, with the best prospect being "Gates of Heaven."

"NOT LIKE NOW" (2:38) [Shannon BMI—Robinson]

"FIVE FEET OF LOVIN'" (1:50) [Free BMI—Tillis, Petty]

FREDDIE ROBINSON (Limelight 3005)

● Freddie Robinson comes through with a slow beat jump, "Not Like Now", that has novelty attraction in a down home way. Robinson combines a talk-chant-sing delivery that comes off very effectively. This is a deck to watch—it has the ingredients to take it all the way. The flip, "Five Feet Of Lovin'", is a middle beat teener beat offering which Robinson lends his gravelly chant to. Another infectious offering that deserves close attention—but we lean to "Not Like Now" for the big noise.

"HARD HEADED WOMAN" (1:52) [Gladys ASCAP—C. DeMetruis]

"DON'T ASK ME WHY" (2:07)
[Gladys ASCAP—F. Wise, B. Weisman]

ELVIS PRESLEY (RCA Victor 7280)

● That man's here again. Uncle Sam has him but RCA Victor has his releases. Good news for all markets. See pop reviews.

JOHNNY FULLER

(Checker 899)

B+ "YOU GOT ME WHISTLING" (2:20) [Arc/B Flat BMI—Fuller, Jones] Johnny Fuller turns in an amiable performance as he sings the slow shuffle with an easy, driftly approach. Very pleasant deck that jockeys should find great programming. Keep an eye on this side.

B "ALL NIGHT LONG" (2:42) [Arc/B Flat BMI—Bob Geddins] Fuller goes into a rhythmic quick beat bouncer that comes off good but average. Ok coupler.

THE PLANTS

(J & S 1617)

B+ "FROM ME" (1:50) [Zell's Music BMI—Z. Sanders] The Plants offer a tender slow beat ballad with an easy, soft treatment. Melodic lilt that is for the teener and the more sophisticates. Pretty wax that should be carefully watched.

B "MY GIRL" (2:58) [Zell's Music BMI—Plants] The Plants back with a middle beat r & r jump that is tailor made for the teentrade. The kids can hop around to this wax.

THE SHYTONE FIVE

(J & S 1622)

B "THE GRANDE GUITAR" (2:47) [Zell's Music BMI—Sanders] The Shytone Five turns in a strong instrumental rock that captures the listener's attention. A waxing strong on treatment and sound. Should grab lots of airtime.

B "SACK ROCK" (2:40) [Zell's Music BMI—Smitty] The Shytone Five turns to the quick beat rock on the flip and the result is an engaging etching. Deck moves from the opening gun. Lots of excitement for the kids.

SPIRITUAL

BROOKLYN ALL STAR SINGERS

(Peacock 1782)

B+ "CARESS SOUL" (2:58) [Lion BMI—Arr. H. Clifton] The Brooklyn All Star Singers turn in a thrilling performance of a slow beat spiritual. Lead voice is clear, strong and remind some of the recent gospel, now pop-turned singer, Sam Cooke. Moving gospel wax.

B "A PRAYER FOR TODAY" (2:00) [Lion BMI—T. Spann] The Brooklyn All Star Singers up the tempo on the flip and give an exciting reading of a rhythmic middle beat religious offering. Syncopated rhythm supplies a stirring quality to the excellent waxing.

PROF. HAROLD BOGGS

(Nashboro 618)

B+ "BECAUSE HE'S MINE" (2:27) [Excellorec BMI—H. Boggs] Prof. Harold Boggs sings a simple spiritual with an unpretentious reading. Boggs is accorded a chorus backing with just the framework of instrumental support. Strong effort that should please the gospel buyer.

B "YES THERE'S ONE" (2:32) [Excellorec BMI—H. Boggs] Boggs treats the slow beat religious tune with the same simple reading and backing. Effective in its sincerity and simplicity. Two solid gospel decks.

Swing And Sway Meets Rock And Roll

NEW YORK—Smiles were the order of the evening at this meeting of two music masters at the Roosevelt Grill in New York. On the left is band-leader Sammy Kaye, sitting between sets with Dick Clark and his wife, who dropped down to the Grill the other night to dance to the swing and sway music of Sammy's band, which is the current attraction there. Clark is the idol of the Rock and Roll set as emcee of the "American Bandstand" program heard Saturday nights over the ABC network.

Dot Exec Reports On Europe

HOLLYWOOD—Jim Bailey, Director of Administration and Finance for Dot Records, returned from Europe last week with first hand news of record markets abroad, and reported a seemingly prosperous economy everywhere, particularly in Germany, where yearly single sales total nearly 50 million, of which about 4 million are American records.

Bailey stated that the record business is just starting in Europe, and suffers from lack of air exposure. For example, where the U. S. has about 5,000 radio disk jockeys, England has exactly two on Radio Luxembourg, only British commercial radio outlet. Further, in England there is a 65% purchase tax on records, bringing the retail price much higher than here. Efforts are currently being made to lower this tax. Even so, the British are buying millions of records per year and Bailey reports that the English record stores are very smart, modern shops.

Last year Holland, with a population of 11 million people, sold 12 million records. Italy sold 20 million, France about 12 million. An EP album in France sells for about 800 francs, or 1/30th of the average weekly wage.

Most European cities have only one television channel, watched with avid interest, and packing a powerful sales punch. Following Pat Boone's appearance on a Perry Como show re-broadcast in Rome, his record sales jumped sky-high.

Music, according to Bailey, is still the greatest form of international communication, getting through to people everywhere, and he observed a decided growth in popularity of American pop music.

Following a detailed study of Bailey's European survey, Dot Records expected to announce a long-term company policy in the international field.

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS—Charles W. Balthrope, major stockholder of Radio Station KITE, has announced the sale of the station to Connie B. Gay, chairman of the board of the Town & Country Network. College Band Directors' Head Urges Music Educators To Learn Laws Governing Their Profession

NEW YORK — Frederick Fennell, President of the College Band Directors National Council and member of the faculty of the Eastman School of Music, warned the members of the Music Publishers Association, at their 63rd Annual Meeting, that until music educators understand the United States laws governing their profession, copyright infringement will continue to plague composers and publishers. "Musicians who have been swept along in the tremendous growth of American school band activities have too often assumed the attitude that 'music, like air, is free,'" he said, and added the hope that "certain leaders in the band field will stop looking with disdain on property rights as they apply to published music."

Frank Homeyer, President of the National Association of Sheet Music Dealers, who also addressed the sixty publishers present yesterday at the Warwick Hotel, recommended the creation of a joint committee of publishers and dealers to investigate ways to improve promotion of sheet music through better merchandising and business practices.

New members elected to the Music Publishers Association Board of Directors are: Frederick Fox of Sam Fox publishing Co., Benjamin V. Grasso of Associated Music Publishers, Inc., Geoffrey Gray of H. W. Gray, Clifford Carter of Carl Fischer, Inc., Rudolph Tauher of G. Schirmer, Inc., and Dr. Franco Columbo of G. Ricordi & Co. The Board of Directors re-elected Arthur Hauser of Theodore Presser Publishing Co. as President, David Adams of Boosey & Hawkes, Inc., Vice President and Benjamin V. Grasso of Associated Music Publishers, Inc., as Treasurer. Bernard Kohn of Elkan-Vogel Co., Inc. was elected as Secretary.

The successful conclusion to five years' activity of the Music Postage Committee, the new regulations governing sheet music in the postal rate bill effective August 1, was described by Leonard Feist as representing a saving of $500,000 yearly to the music world.

Victor Intros New Stereo Disk Cartridge

NEW YORK—The new stereophonic tape cartridge, introduced by RCA Victor last week is available to all tape producers for their own tapes through the RCA Victor Custom Record Sales Department. This was announced last week by Emmett B. Dunn, manager of the department.

The new stereo tape cartridge is available through RCA Victor's Custom Record Department as part of its complete tape service, including recording, editing, high speed duplicating, labeling, packing, and shipping. As a result of the new equipment developed by RCA engineers, cartridge tapes can be turned out even faster than ordinary reel tapes.

The stereo tape cartridge, more than four years in development by RCA Victor, is expected to appeal strongly to buyers of stereo tape because it is lower in price than conventional tape and as easy to handle as an ordinary record. The tape is entirely enclosed in a five by seven by one-half-inch plastic case and does not need to be threaded on a reel or rewound after playing.

"The stereo tape cartridge will be a source of significant 'cream-of-the-top' plus business to tape producers," said Dunn. "With almost all his costs of production absorbed by records and conventional tapes, the alert producer can get high profit, extra sales by stressing the convenience and lower price of tape cartridges."

COUNTRY POLL WINNERS

Each disk jockey listed three choices in each category. Three points were awarded for each first choice, two points for each second choice, and one point for each third choice. Of the total number of points cast, the following is the percentage each artist received. The maximum an artist could possibly receive was 50% since even if every disk jockey voted the same artist number one, it would still add up to only 50% of the six points available in each category.

D MEDIOCRE

"Only those records best suited for commercial use are reviewed by THE CASH BOX"

TEX WILLIAMS
(Decca 30672)

B+ "BAD MAN'S COUNTRY" (2:45)
[E. H. Morris ASCAP—R. Kent]
The title tune from the Peerless Production is decked out with telling effect by the deep-voiced Tex Williams. Jack Marshall's ork and chorus superbly back up the artist on this western-flavored affair.

B+ "BALLAD OF THUNDER ROAD" (2:25) [Leeds ASCAP—R. Mitchum, D. Raye]—Marshall's crew wonderfully showcases another distinctive vocal performance by Williams as he flies over this haunting, fast moving United Artist—D.R.M. Production. Two tunes that oughta move well with both the country and pop platter spinners.

LESTER FLATT & EARL SCRUGGS
(Columbia 41184)

B+ "BUILDING ON SAND" (2:29)
[Peer Int'l BMI—Flatt, Scruggs, Butler, Sherry] The Lester Flatt-Earl Scruggs-Foggy Mountain crew gets its message across with touching sincerity on this moderate paced, sacred piece.

B "HEAVEN" (2:34) [Cedarwood BMI—B. McSpadden, H. McSpadden] Here the boys serve up some more of their effectively-authentic vocal and instrumental sounds on a heartwarming, slightly up tempo religious affair Two solid 'bible belt' entries.

WEATHERFORD QUARTET
(GBS 1102)

B+ "ECHOES FROM CALVARY" (2:57) [Neal, Pechman] One of the prettiest religious pieces to hit the wax scene over the past few months is this slicing cut by Akron, Ohio's contribution to the sacred market, The Weatherford Quartet. A stirring lilter performed with a great deal of warmth and sincerity by the crew.

B+ "IS IT TRUE" (2:13) [GBS BMI—Neal, Pechman] Flip is a change of pace, subdued, 'hallelujah-flavored' opus that the artists sock out in sparkling style. Wonderful coupling.

GENE SIMMONS
(Sun 299)

B+ "DRINKIN' WINE" [Knox BMI—Simmons] The label that has turned out more than its share of hitmakers could add another name to the list in the person of Gene Simmons. It's an intriguing, quick moving, romantic-blues piece on which Simmons both talks and sings in tantalizing fashion. Watch it pop and country-wise.

B+ "I DONE TOLD YOU" [Knox BMI—Simmons] Another socko blues piece is hammered out in pulsating style by the new Sun rockster. Either end could prove to be Simmons' 'stepping stone.'

ROBBIE ROBBINS
(Hep 2001)

B "HURRY" [N. S. BMI—G. Robinson] With Lennie Brand's driving guitar-work backing Robbie Robbins in solid style the chanter proceeds to enthusiastically wrap up this fast paced, romantic, rock-a-billy item. Good intro wax for the newcomers.

C+ "LONELY LIPS" [N. S. BMI—B. Auge, F. Steviken] Here Brand supplies a soft, subdued string background for Robbins' tender treatment of a heartbreaking, moderate paced lover's tale.

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE

"HARD HEADED WOMAN" (1:52) [Gladys ASCAP—C. DeMetruis]

"DON'T ASK ME WHY" (2:07) [Gladys ASCAP—F. Wise, B. Weisman]

ELVIS PRESLEY (RCA Victor 7280)

● Two tunes from the forthcoming Paramount flick, "King Creole," the rockin' "Hard Headed Woman" and the "Don't Ask Me Why" ballad, have that super-commercial look. The reason? Elvin sings 'em. (See Pop Reviews).

"THEME OF LOVE" (2:04) [Diana ASCAP—J. Fulton, L. Steele]

"BLUE BOY" (2:07) [Acuff-Rose BMI—B. Bryant]

JIM REEVES (RCA Victor 7266)

JIM REEVES

● Jim Reeves continues to make the headlines. In addition to turning out hit after hit, currently represented in the listings with his twin chart-rider, "I Love You More" and "Overnight," Jim has taken over the slot vacated, on the "Country Music Jubilee," by the vacationing Red Foley. Now Jim has a new Victor pairing, out this week, that we'll probably be seeing way up there very soon. They're the exceptionally pretty, slow paced "Theme Of Love (I Love To Say, 'I Love You') and the tear-compelling rock-a-ballad, "Blue Boy." Top drawer, pop-styled choral and musical backdrop on two sides loaded with smash, dual-mart potential. Like 'em both.

"CITY LIGHTS" (2:54) [T. N. T. BMI—B. Anderson]

"INVITATION TO THE BLUES" (2:45) [Boxer BMI—R. Miller]

RAY PRICE (Columbia 41191)

RAY PRICE

● Ray Price, who currently has a hot two-sider on the charts with his "Curtain In The Window" and "It's All Your Fault," comes thru with another powerful pairing that seems certain to follow suit. On the topside he dramatically leans into a heart rending, middle beat, honky-tonk item, labeled "City Lights," and the results are just sensational. And he's equally effective on the other half, a touching, slightly up tempo shuffler tagged "Invitation To The Blues." Splendid choral and instrumental support for two outstanding pieces of material.

"THE ONE I LOVE" (2:34) [Acuff-Rose BMI—D. Gibson]
"SEARCHIN' FOR HAPPINESS" (2:18)

[Acuff-Rose BMI—R. Acuff, B. Martin]

ROY ACUFF (Hickory 1081)

ROY ACUFF

● Roy Acuff, whose "Once More" clicker is still a topic of conversation in country music wax circles, comes up with another pair of tunes that are gonna have the folks buzzin' again. And both ends of these 'pure country' efforts are enhanced by a stellar Smokey Mountain Boys' assist. The tunes, tagged "The One I Love (Is Gone)" and "Searchin' For Happiness," fall into the moderate paced lover's lament category and are projected with telling effect by the veteran country music chanter. Strong pairing though the upper end carries more weight.

GLENN GLENN
(Era 1074)

B+ "LAURIE ANN" (2:39) [Hillary BMI—W. Lewis, N. Miller, B. Guitar] Glenn Glenn's latest outing for the Era label could prove to be a real money-maker in both the pop and country depts. And some grade "A", pop-styled vocal and instrumental sounds back up Glenn's enchanting delivery of this infectious rock-a-ballad entry. Keep close tabs on this one. It looks good.

B+ "ONE CUP OF COFFEE" (2:00)
[Warman BMI—W. Stewart] On this end the songster receives another fine musical backdrop as he runs thru an up tempo blues piece in haunting style.

JIMMY COPELAND
(Event 4269)

C+ "ROSES AND THORNS" (2:20)
[Goldmine ASCAP — C. & N. Kenny] Jimmy Copeland hands in a soft, sincere treatment of this moderate paced romantic weeper from the pens of the "Love Letters In The Sand" cleffers, Charles and Nick Kenny. Touching piece of material. Merits the airplay.

C+ "JEALOUS HEARTED ME" (2:22)
[Peer Int'l BMI—A. P. Carter] Bottom waffle is a snappy, quick beat novelty item that Copeland decks out in a subdued rockin' fashion.

HELEN BOZEMAN
(Sandy 1011)

C+ "SUGAR BABY" (1:55) [Burnt Oak BMI—P. McCord] Helen Bozeman serves up a delectable piece of material as she engagingly knocks out a bright, up tempo romantic novelty. Flavorful vocal and instrumental support on a catchy swinger that oughta make the hoofers happy.

C "WHAT DOES A GIRL DO WITH THE BLUES" (2:10)
[Burnt Oak BMI — H. Bozeman] Lower biscuit finds the thrush in a sad frame of mind as she spins a steady beat, r&r flavored item.

KENNY SMITH
(Top-Per 281)

B "SECRET DATE" (1:59) [4 Star BMI—J. O'Neal, W. S. Stevenson] Kenny Smith put loads of feeling into his delivery of a potent, steady beat, 'back street' affair. Emotion-packed reading with an r&r instrumental flavoring on a deck that could stir up a heap of dust. Merits lotsa airplay.

B "I'M SO LONESOME, BABY" (2:02) [4 Star BMI—T. Wilson] On the under half Smith comes up with another standout waxing as he races thru this rapid moving lover's lament with an intriguing musical assist. Striking twosome.

CHARLIE FEATHERS
(Kay 1001)

B+ "WHY DON'T YOU" [C. R. Kahn BMI—Chastian, Huffman] Charlie Feather's initial outing on the new Kay label could prove to be quite a successful venture. It's an all-market rafter-shaker that Charlie, along with a tremendous musical backdrop, belts out in sparkling style. Could happen.

C+ "JUNGLE FEVER" [C. R. Kahn BMI — Feathers, Maupin] With the instruments painting a picture of an impenetrable thicket in the background the warbler proceeds to pound out a feelingful, fast-moving, off-beat rocker. Two solid coin-catchers for the boxes.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—In this day and age it seems that everyone has become an expert in economics. Yet, even those qualified as "experts" are split on their views on business. Government economic experts' current public position is that the downturn is losing most of its steam and that conditions will remain essentially at present until late summer or early fall, when signs of a pickup can be expected. They back their views by citing signs of improvement, with the steel industry picking up noticeably. New housing is moving ahead strongly. However, there are top economic officials of the government who do not believe plus factors in the economy come close to outweighing the minus factors. One top official whose job is to keep his fingers on the pulse of the economy told United Press International: "I don't think any person, however well-informed, can argue against the fact of future economic recovery. The question of timing on the other hand, is quite open to discussion." This official believes it may be mid-September before there will be conclusive evidence on the end of the slump.

NEW YORK—Sylvia Porter, columnist for the New York Post, points out an interesting fact. The Treasury, she says, will be borrowing and repaying, borrowing and repaying on the biggest scale ever during the year. "It means" says Porter, "that the greatest wave of cash borrowing by our Treasury since the Korean war, and the greatest wave of borrowing ever in peacetime is about to sweep over our land." Continuing, she states, "It means a major spur to business is in the making—in the form of the deficit and of the Treasury borrowing itself. For as the Government sinks deeply into the red, it will be pouring billions more into the business stream than it will be taking out in taxes—and this money must stimulate the economy. The deficit actually will be the biggest 'contribution' the Government will be making to business in the coming months."

NEW YORK—Sales Management, a publication, reporting on surveys made by the Bureau of Advertising, states emphatically "The summer sales slump is purely myth." It was pointed out that the public buys more in the average summer month than it does in the non-summer periods. So, coinmen, don't lay down during the summer months—just go out and work—the business is there.

"IT'S NOT AS BAD AS THEY SAY"

Report That Even Tho Collections Off In Most Areas Business Overall Still Continues In The Black. Face Future Confident That Coinbiz Will Progress In All Divisions With Pickup Beginning This Fall And Continuing Up For The Rest Of The Year

CHICAGO—"It's not as bad as they say," admit operators all over the country in regard to general business conditions.

Even tho collections are off in most areas, business on an overall basis continues in the black, these operators admit.

The most heartening part of this whole business problem is the fact that these operators face the future with grand confidence.

They believe the entire industry will progress. This will start with a very noticeable business pickup this Fall of '58, they say.

"I guess we've just about hit bottom as far as collections are concerned," state ops.

"But," they add, "this does not mean that we are losing money. It does mean," they say, "that we aren't earning what we used to when our collections were much higher."

"Then, again," they admit, "we didn't have the labor costs and expenses which we now have."

"We didn't pay the kind of taxes we now pay. We didn't have to switch as many machines around as we do these days."

The only puzzle in this entire problem is to learn from the operators just what they base their collections on at this time.

It has been found, in some cases, that operators have their collections on the high point they enjoyed from their locations.

This, as businessmen can understand, is a poor method to use at this, or at any other time, to gauge intake against outgo.

There are some operators who claim that, based on what they did in '57, they are doing as well, if not better, at this time.

"The fact is," one well-known operator frankly admits, "that if we were to base our collections on what we did in 1957, we are doing better today."

"But," he adds, "like most others we like to base ourselves on our best collections."

"Perhaps," he agrees, "this isn't exactly good business, but," he admits, "it's a better system than just working from year to year."

"By that we mean if our collections aren't at the highest peak then we have something to shoot for to bring them back to that peak, and even higher, if possible."

"Why should we base ourselves on a poor year? Let's look ahead. Let's always base ourselves on our best year. Then we can continue on the theory that we can beat whatever we formerly earned if we use the correct machines and better business methods."

This operator, like the others, is optimistic over the future of the industry. He feels that this industry has only just begun to move "in the right direction."

"Take the new machines that are being produced," he says. "Years ago when consoles, one-balls, bells, and other such equipment were on the market, who could even dream of buying machines like we now have?"

"Yet," he explains, "these machines have proved that they can bring us just as much and, as far as we are concerned, with less headaches."

"The fact remains that the manufacturers are gradually pointing us in the right direction."

They will, eventually, come up with a new type game. Just as they have come up with the games of today. This will open up every location everywhere in the nation to better business for all."

The music operators are of the same opinion. They point to the new products that are in the market. They believe that the best features of these will soon become part and parcel of the automatic phono business.

"Music is the best," most of these men state, "because it has definitely become the basic backbone of the industry."

George A. Miller Reappoints Ben Chemers Los Angeles' CMMA Mgr.

CMMA Also Ties In With Peter Potter "Juke Box Jury" TV Show For Entire State Of California. Plan To Extend Show Into Oregon And Washington To Cover All Of West Coast

GEORGE A. MILLER

OAKLAND, CALIF.—"I'm very happy to announce," reported George A. Miller, State president and business manager of California Music Merchants Association, "that by unanimous agreement of the Los Angeles Chapter of CMMA, we have just reappointed Ben Chemers manager."

"We were tremendously pleased and happy to be able to reappoint Ben Chemers to the position which he had held formerly with us. Ben is also very happy to be back with us again. In fact, all of the members of our Los Angeles chapter feel this reappointment was exactly what we needed to assure our continued leadership in this area."

Miller also advised that CMMA had tied in with the Peter Potter "Juke Box Jury" TV show for the State of California. The number one tune chosen by the "Juke Box Jury" will appear in a special title strip in the number one program position in the juke boxes of all CMMA members.

"In due time," Miller reported, "we plan to take in Oregon and Washington and, thereby, cover the entire west coast area for the Peter Potter 'Juke Box Jury' TV show."

"This will help all the music merchants on the west coast to enjoy greater returns from their phonos due to the efforts of the experts that appear on Peter Potter's show and pick the top records."

"We feel that this start which we have made, and which takes in all of the state of California thru our CMMA, will help every single member of our state association to enjoy one of the most popular tie-in programs that has ever yet happened here."

"The Peter Potter 'Juke Box Jury' TV show," Miller continued, "has a tremendous following. The members of CMMA will find that all the plans which have been made will help to greatly popularize their phonographs because of the Peter Potter show."

Miller also reported that many plans are now under way to help all the operators who are members of CMMA to enjoy the finest public relations as well as the greatest popularity in the state of California.

"As yet," Miller said, "I can't reveal all the plans we are preparing to benefit California's juke box operators. Just as soon as these are ready I shall be very, very happy to announce them to all the trade."

Jack Mitnick Will Fly To Europe To See Distribs

JACK MITNICK

CHICAGO—Jack Mitnick, executive vice-president of United Music

Corporation, this city, is flying to Europe for a quick coverage of the firm's distributors.

Mitnick has been in receipt of many letters from his distributors thruout Europe who wanted to meet with him and discuss future plans.

At the same time, Jack reported that he believed regular coverage of the European market, to note any changes, would prove of benefit to the firm and would, at the same time, help act as a guide for future exports.

He has made arrangements in advance for meeting with distributors and believes that, by using planes, he can cover the important centers in a period of from two to three weeks.

"We have a very outstanding program," Mitnick stated, "but this will probably be revealed on my return back to the U. S. after meeting with our distributors in Europe."

Chi Coin Follows Up Hit Game With "Rocket Explorer"

"Rocket Shuffle" Still In Peak Production

ED LEVIN

CHICAGO—Chicago Coin Machine has just followed up its sensational hit game, "Rocket Shuffle", with a brand new game which was in the process of development and test even while "Rocket Shuffle" was still in top peak production.

The new game is "Rocket Explorer". According to the firm this game incorporates everything that is found to be most exciting and profitable in its single and two-player models of "Rocket Shuffle".

All features are adjustable and, in addition, there is a lite-up-name feature that has won great acclaim from all who have already seen it.

"Tho I've just returned to the factory", reported Ed Levin, sales director of the firm, "I can report that we have had 'Rocket Explorer' under the severest kind of intensive tests for weeks to decide whether or not this would be the game to follow our sensational hit, 'Rocket Shuffle'.

"Our distributors and their operators who tested 'Rocket Explorer' tell us that this game outdoes anything that 'Rocket Shuffle' ever did on any location and, at the same time, earns them more money.

"That's what we wanted to hear. We know now that we have one of the very greatest games that has ever been presented to the amusement field in our 'Rocket Explorer'.

"Furthermore", adds Ed Levin, "this is the perfect follow-up game for more than one reason.

"The players", he points out, "have learned how to score on 'Rocket Shuffle' and like this type of play action.

"The new game, 'Rocket Explorer', with adjustable features, arranges for the operators to make this an even more interesting game from play standpoint.

"Therefore, the players have some-

CALIFORNIA CLIPPINGS

The distributors and one-stops along Pico Boulevard have enjoyed an influx of out-of-town operators who seldom make the trek to the big city. The music and game business has taken a steady upswing and should continue through the summer months. . . . At California Music Company, Sammy Ricklin and Gabe Orland receiving great praise from the operators on their complete stock of singles, albums and the newly added section containing all the old standards. Val Zuniga predicts the next big selling album will be "Bwana A" by Arthur Lyman on Hi Fi. Janet Parker devoting her spare time auditioning for television shows and commercials. Buddy Robinson reports The Kirby Stone Four's version of "Baubles, Bangles, Beads" on Columbia has taken off with the operators. Martha Delgado believes Vic Damone's next big hit will be "The Only Man On The Island" on Columbia. . . . At Paul A. Lloyd Barrett, Pamona operator, sporting a new red Thunderbird along Coin Row. . . . At C. A. Robinson & Company, Al Bettelman reports it is very difficult to keep a model of United's "Bonus" bowler in the showroom due to the demand from the operators. Charley Robinson and his wife are on a motor trip to San Francisco, Reno and Las Vegas where Charley will visit distributors and operators on the way. Hank Tronick says the first shipment of Williams' "Satellite" game sold out and he is anxiously awaiting the next.

Big celebration at American Coin Machine Company when Vinny Lanzy announced to his three brothers, Bill, Andy and Nick Lanzy that his wife Mary had just presented him with a little baby girl. This now evens the score for Vinny with two boys and two girls. Bill says production of the new "Program Title Holder" continues in full swing. Nick reports the requests for good used equipment remains at a high peak. . . . Larry Collins, Whittier operator, returned to his duties after a week-end in Las Vegas. . . . Barbara Chandler, back at the "Bar" full time after completing her finals at U.C.L.A., says Johnny Mathis' new release "A Certain Smile" on Columbia has taken off with the operators the first few days of release. Claire predicts Lou Monte has another big hit with "Eh, Marie, Eh, Marie" on RCA-Victor. Kaye believes "I'll Get By" by Billy Williams on Coral is headed for the top.

Al Silberman at Associated Distributors, Inc. reports that business has greatly surpassed his early expectations. Al says the sales of the Wurlitzer "2200" phonograph, route sales plus a substantial shipment of music and games to Tel Aviv have kept the entire staff on the go the past week. The shop has been rearranged and will be headed by Bob Baird. Gene Jackson has been nicknamed "Gen'o" after the crew at Associated discovered he is practically a 'genius' in all fields. Ralph Cragen has been given the title of Customer Relations and is traveling the territory visiting the operators. . . . Dallas Distributor Sponsors Editorial Contest For Wives Of All Texas Lawmen

ABE SUSMAN

DALLAS, TEXAS—Abe Susman, owner and operator of State Music Distributors, Inc., this city, and a long time associate member of the Sheriffs' Association of Texas, has announced his sponsorship, in connection with The Texas Lawman, the official publication of The Sheriffs' Association of Texas and what is claimed to be America's oldest and largest law enforcement publication, of a special contest which is open to the wives of all Texas law enforcement officers.

A staunch friend and supporter of good law enforcement, Susman indicated recently to the editor of The Texas Lawman that he would like to do something of a direct and positive nature which would focus the spotlight of public attention on the extremely low salaries which are generally paid to the police officers of Texas and which would pinpoint some of the many other problems that confront these devoted public servants in the pursuit of their daily occupations.

The result is Susman's sponsorship of an Editorial Contest which is open only to the wives of Texas law enforcement officers.

The rules designed are as follows:

1) The contest is open to the wife of any law enforcement officer in Texas at any level of jurisdiction—precinct, city, county, state or federal.

2) Subject matter of the editorial must have as its general theme the topic, "I Am The Wife Of A Law Enforcement Officer," and it should deal with either the good or bad aspects of the relationship suggested by the husband's occupation—or both.

3) There will be no limit as to length of the editorial. It may either be a short one or a long one.

4) Editorials must be typewritten, double-spaced, on one side of sheets of regular sized typing paper. The name of the entry must be typed at the top right hand corner of each page and each page must be numbered consecutively. Hand-written or single-spaced manuscripts will not be considered.

5) Entries must be mailed to: The Texas Lawman, P. O. Box 4097, North Austin Station, Austin (51) Texas; and postmarked not later than midnight, June 30, 1958.

An impartial board of judges will select the winning entries on the basis of originality, clearness of expression and pertinence to the editorial subject. A flair for the literary is not necessary and entrants are asked to express themselves in their own words.

Employees of The Texas Lawman and members of their families are not eligible to enter, but entries will be gladly accepted from wives of officers and board members of The Sheriffs' Association of Texas.

First place winner will be awarded a 21" console model television set (black and white). The runner up will receive a 17" portable television set (black and white).

Winners will be announced at the banquet during the 80th Annual Conference of the Sheriffs' Association of Texas at Tyler on the evening of July 22 and prizes will be awarded at that time.

NEW ENGLAND NIBBLES

We are happy to report that coin biz in the N. E. territory is on a big upward swing, sparked by the beginning of what looks like a tremendous outdoor season with distrib plants swept practically clean of all arcade equipment. Excitement over the new games has permeated the fun spot areas where they have been installed and ops report collections are terrific. Business over the traditional Decoration Day week-end was big with arcades, kiddie ride spots, park and pool installations all coming up with heavy influx of fun seekers. Music has been holding excellently, sparked by constant crop of name disk singers in and around the Boston area night spots.

At Trimount Automatic Sales Corp. (Seeburg), arrival of the new Williams' "Satellite" pin game brought enthusiasm from N. E. ops and resulted in plenty orders being booked. Irwin Margold, gen. mgr., points out that the firm is waiting delivery on the new Seeburg cigarette machine, and orders have been so big that it looks like every op in the six New England states is going into cigarette machine diversification. Arcade equipment has been practically cleaned off the floor here, with big rush out to meet opening of outdoor season deadline. A shortage of both arcade equipment and good used equipment is reported by Marshall Caras, sales, who points out that arcade equipment has really gone into short supply now. Export biz is stepping up here, and demand for new Seeburg phonos is high. Trimount's sales and office force are set for the scorching summer weather with air conditioning. . . . At Associated Amusements, Ed Ravreby is back in action at the new plant after being laid up with a double barreled round of illness in which he was hospitalized twice with pneumonia. The new "1464" Rock-Ola has arrived at the new showroom, and ops are expressing themselves as impressed with the 120-selection model that can be used on stand, or wall. The new headquarters of Associated in Allston is practically completely laid out and Dick Mandell, gen. mgr., has taken to the road again for visits with ops in the southern areas. . . . At Atlas Distributors (AMI), Louis Blatt reports biz is holding steady on the new AMI phonos with good representation of ops coming in weekly to look 'em over and place orders. A large number of AMI phonos have been placed in summer hotels in the White Mt. region this summer, he reports, and hotel ops were impressed with the color designed machine because they could pick colors to blend with their decor for practically whatever room they wished. . . . At Redd Distributing (Wurlitzer), big "Year-End Clearance" sale is underway here and ops are coming in droves to get the markdowns and bargains being offered. Bob Jones, genial sales mgr., reports that the firm is out of stock on Bally's "Big Inning," so terrific have sales been. "Big Inning," he says, is getting the nod from ops all over the area because "it's real baseball from start to finish" and "one or two can play". Bally's "Cypress Gardens" is going big here too. Ops are reporting good collections with Wurlitzer phonos and demand is way up, Jones states.

Ops in visiting distribs this week included: George Briggs, North Adams; Adolphe Dugas, Webster; Al Dolins, Hyannis; Ray Shea, Worcester; Dave Baker, Arlington; Stanley Skop, Westfield; Pete and Walter Slepchuch, Greenfield; Joe Cucchiare, Fitchburg; Sol Robbins, Newton; Ralph Lackey, Milton; Louis Stevens, Southbridge; Pete Suma, Bristol, Conn.; George Chodelas, Malden; Walter Stadnik, Central Falls; R. I.; Connie Pocius, South Boston; Ronald Maher, Pawtucket; R. I.; Sid Wolbarst, Newton; Harold Harwich, Brighton; and Phil Swartz, Brookline.

More than 200 establishments began Friday, June 6, to operate phonos, pinball machines, and other automatic coin operated amusement devices in Newport, R. I., after a 6-1 City Council vote okaying the licenses. . . . Arcades at Hampton Beach, Revere Beach, Nantasket, Old Orchard Beach, Me., Norumbega Park, Lincoln Park reported that the new coin operated amusement games installed this season got big plays from overflow crowds over the past two week-ends. . . . Eileen Rodgers, recovered from emergency appendectomy, had a smash opening at the Frolic in Revere where she chalked up her fourth stand in the room where she is a favorite. The Columbia recording artist jammed the club every night of her engagement June 8-14. . . . Distribs are getting vacation minded here with some personnel already enjoying holidays and others week-ending it on the Cape—Si Redd and Bob Jones of Redd Distributing (Wurlitzer) week-ending in Hyannis; likewise Ed and Mrs. Ravreby, Dick and Mrs. Mandell (Associated Amusements); Louis Blatt, (Atlas-AMI) week-ending at his Newfoundland Lake spot; Dave Baker, (Melo-Tone Music) Arlington op and prexy Music Ops of Mass. Asso., week-ending at Canobie Lake where he has a new speedboat.

US GALS

By Cissie Gersh

MR. & MRS. SAM TARAN

Our very, very special heroine's award to a most charming and beautiful lady. The thrilling part of all this is the fact that this very lovely lady doesn't even know that we were there and actually noted the reason why we believe she should be given a heroine's award. It all happened on our very busy Michigan Boulevard. Just in front of Saks Fifth Avenue. With the hundreds of autos dashing endlessly by and with his mother screaming hysterically, a gorgeous little boy, possibly five or six, dashed out into the street. We, too, were coming along in our car. Brakes screamed. Drivers yelled. Bumpers clashed. Bedlam reigned. And from the sidewalk, just in the nick of time, out dashed this very beautiful lady, scooped up the little lad up in her arms and ran back to the sidewalk with him. It was the closest of close misses for, there is no doubt, in just a few more fractions of a second the little lad would have met with a horrible fate under the wheels of that endless, heavy traffic. Who was the charming and beautiful heroine? Rozanna (Mrs. David) LeWinter, wife of our Pump Room maestro. The gal who so beautifully modeled furs at the MOA Ladies Fashion Luncheon.

Congratulations to Diane and Sam Taran of Miami. They just celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary. I'm told it was a most outstanding affair. I'm sure that Diane must have been a child bride. I'd never, never believe she was married twenty-five years. Met Diane at the MOA show and also at the Covenant Club where Kate (Mrs. Joe) Simon entertained her family and guests during the MOA convention. By the way, Kate's dotter is not only a beauty, but also one of the most outstanding of the young intellectual set. . . . Happy marital bliss for another 20 times 20 years to Faye and Sam Solomons of Columbus, O. The Solomons just celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary. . . . Good luck to Nicki (Mrs. Bill) O'Donnell with her brand new and so very beautiful 'you know what'. . . . Bumped into Leona (Mrs. Al) Schlesinger. Leona very sad indeed since the passing of her husband. Tells me she's moving back to Florida. . . . Received a very unusual and lovely little note from Mary Gillette. Mary is her old self again. She is one of the very sweetest gals ever. . . . Thanks to Mary Lou Fiorito for that beautiful 'thank you' note. Mary Lou is the very lovable girl who was voted my 'Edith Davis Memorial Award' trophy by the officers of the Chicago Automatic Phonograph Bowling League. And which I was so proud to present to her.

Calling Eloise Mangone of Miami. Why haven't I heard from you? Signed, 'Anxious'. . . . Wonder how Millie (Mrs. Ray) Riehl keeps that gorgeous figure? . . . Here, most definitely, is the exception that proves the rule. Most mothers just can't wait until they get their little darlings off to camp. But not Kaye (Mrs. Art) Weinand. She can't wait until vacationtime so that she'll have her three gorgeous children home with her. . . . Congratulations to Dick and Arlene Gersh. They're celebrating two years of wedded bliss. Arlene, darling, you're still the number one gal on my list. . . . Well, it's golfing time again. I'm happy to be able to report I have gone around our club course a few times. But with horrible results. Do hope to hear from some of you lady golfers. Like Ellie Stern and Sarah Oettinger and so many, many others. All of whom, it seems, have a way of taming that elusive little white pellet.

Independent Belgian Mfr. Produces Two New Phonos

Bob Rennotte Has British Market Specifically In Mind

GEMBLOUX, BELGIUM—Independent Belgian manufacturer Bob Rennotte, has produced two new juke boxes, which will be available in Britain and other parts of Europe. The modest Belgian manufacturer has designed two first-rate phonographs with the British market specifically in mind.

Both new machines are 80-selection ones. One is a revolutionary new wall-box complete in itself.

In simplicity it has no peer. It features: No transformers. No relays. No rectifiers. No gears. No clutches.

Yet in performance and quality of reproduction it is reported to be a good juke box.

It is completely new from top to bottom. Work began 20 months ago, and has continued since in very great secrecy. The prototype was finished after eight months. Then followed 12 months of exhaustive testing. Bob was aiming at an ultra-modern machine at least as simple as his CM30. Because in Belgium he has to compete with second-hand American juke boxes at very low cost, he was also aiming at producing an 80-selection phonograph at a sensationally low price.

Here's a brief, non-technical description of the CM80 (most of which applies also to the WB80 wall-box):

The records are stacked in a hollow spindle. Moving in that spindle are jaws which expand to cut the pile of records at the right place. The pick-up plays either the side above or the side below, as required by choice. The jaws receive their movement from a small moving platform, to which is also attached the pick-up arm which, therefore, moves up and down in conjunction with the jaws.

The platform is worked by a single, threaded spindle, which is turned by a belt and a gearless motor. An axle, from a ribbon-driven pulley, directs the searcher, which locates the appropriate buffers on the back of a plate, the front of which is a numbered selector drum. An electric selector button presses home the correct buffer. Selection is easy.

The excellent amplifier is a new 15-watt job, with remote control, and separate woofer and tweeter speakers of the very latest design.

The well-lit, modern-styled cabinet is of formica and steel, in attractive colours. The strock, steel-mesh grill is kick-proof. Programming is at eye-level. National rejectors for any combination of coins are a feature.

"The slogan of the CM80—The simplest of all juke boxes at the best of all prices—should certainly make the latest in the Rennotte line big sellers in Europe," stated Rennotte.

Chattanooga Operators Protest Ordinance Banning Skill Amuse Games

CHATTANOOGA, TENN.—Frank Steil, Dixie Amusement Company, this city, led a group of other amusement machine operators in protesting a city ordinance which would prohibit the operation of all types of amusement machines here. The ordinance was passed by the City Commission on the first reading, Tuesday, June 11.

Speaking only for himself, Steil declared: "I think we should give more thought and study to this ordinance. It automatically outlaws all coin machines that are for amusement. These miniature pool tables have no gambling feature as such. What difference is there between them and a regular pool table?"

"How are these shuffle alleys different from a bowling alley?"

Pinball machines were taken out of Chattanooga in 1954 and were returned in the spring of 1957, after the passage of a state law legalizing them.

The present ordinance provided that "it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to possess, maintain, or operate any pinball machine, miniature pool table, or similar machine, including all machines operated by depositing a coin therein, or by the payment of a coin to the possessor of such machine for the playing of a game or engaging in any contest of chance or skill; provided, the provisions hereof shall not apply to machines owned and operated exclusively for the sale of merchandise where neither the element of chance nor skill is involved."

GREAT BRITAIN GOSSIP

A major Customs inquiry is going on in various parts of the British Isles. Customs officers, evidently searching for equipment that may have been smuggled into the country, have swooped on a number of premises and have questioned some distributors and operators. Some sites are also believed to have been visited for a check on serial numbers. Whatever the outcome, operators generally will welcome the end of the inquiry, as it has proved upsetting for the trade at an important stage of growth. . . . At the June meeting of Britain's Phonograph Operators' Association Council a number of vital matters were discussed. These included depreciation rates (now being adjusted under a Government Finance Bill); cheaper records, insurance rates for equipment in bulk, court proceedings over licenses, the listing of unprofitable sites for the guidance of members; and the dangers inherent in one company's alleged policy of selling to sites. Essex multi-operator Fred Betts was in the chair on this occasion. . . . Ditchburn Equipment, Ltd., said to be the largest operating company in the world, has a new slogan. It is "We Cover The Country," and in addition to their regional depots at London (for the South), Tipton (for the Midlands), Lytham (for the North) and Glasgow (for Scotland) they reveal that they now have Resident Sales-Service Representatives in 26 towns in England; six in Scotland; three in Wales; and one in Belfast. The firm is offering its "Music Maker" 200-selection model (basically the German "Telematic 200") at the very reasonable price of £600 to operators. . . . The sending of American records in alleged "gift parcels" from a New York dealer, named as David Eskin, to a Westminster, London record shop, was described by a magistrate as "a blatant attempt to evade customs duty," when Douglas Hunter Cox was fined £50 for "fraudulently evading the prohibition on the importation of thirty-seven United States records." Details were given of how part payment was made to a relative of Mr. Eskin's in England and of the fact that dollars were also remitted to America in a way that was not known. . . . Mr. A. S. Soteriades, a Cyprus phonograph operator is the first man outside the British Isles to be made a full member of Britain's Phonograph Operators' Association. In the main, Mr. Soteriades operates a large number of Bal-Ami juke-boxes.

Automat Machine Sales Ltd. of 19 Challenge House, 173 Elmers End Road, Beckenham is now handling the "Symphonie 80" juke-box in Britain, and is in the process of appointing sub-agents throughout the country. . . . The Master Vending Machine Co. Ltd of 82-106 Cricklewood Lane, London, N.W.2., has revived the old idea of wooden, two-column cigarette machines with a capacity for 50 packets of ten cigarettes. It is claimed that these machines are being revived because of their fantastic success, and that there are millions of potential sites. The machines are only £12 each.

DALLAS DOINGS

Arthur Hughes, vice-president of O'Connor Dist. Co., just got back from attending graduation exercises at Notre Dame. . . . Dallas' The Five Masks, who finished a two-week date at the Colony Club last week, have a record out, "Polly Molly." The ratings on the record are 17th place in Waco, Texas, 27th in Des Moines, Iowa, and sixth in Canada. . . . Beginning June 13th, Commercial Music Co. will close for a week's vacation. Two of the many Commercialites who will enjoy that gratis week will be Gene Williams, due to relax at Belton Lake and Venita Simmons, who will be off for a family visit in Little Rock, Ark. . . . Carl Johnson, service representative for Wurlitzer, is visiting at Commercial Music. . . . George Singer has left the KLIF Radio staff in order to accept a Denver offer. . . . Recent coinrow visitors: Buddy Clem, Paris; Speedy Walker, Waco; Mr. Moke, San Antonio; M. T. Cornelius, Abilene; Tommy McGuire, Shreveport; Buna Corsicana; and Fred Ellis, Waco. . . . Sorry to hear that Jack Spratt, Temple, is in the hospital. . . . A survey taken by the Dallas Record Dealers Assn. reveals that Sheb Wooley's "Purple People Eater" on MGM Records, was the most popular disk here last week. . . . Sorry to hear that Jim Lowe, WRR Radio Disk jockey, is in the hospital. . . . R. Warncke, son Jim and Miller of San Antonio are visiting at the local R. Warncke office. . . . Tom Chatten, traveling in East Texas this week, reports business is good. . . . Cliff Wilson, Walbox Dist. Co., is going on the road with "Arcade". Boise, Idaho will be his first stop. . . . Phil Weinberg, regional sales manager for Bally Mfg. Co., is in San Antonio this week. . . . "Gigi," the motion picture with hit songs from the MGM album of the same name, makes its Dallas premiere in two weeks. . . . Singer Don Cherry made an appearance other than vocal here this week. Don played golf clubs rather than night clubs as he entered Dallas' Open Golf Tournament.

Proper Programming Most Important Function Of Music Operation

Money Making Records Is Sure Way for Both Ops and Locations To Enjoy Peak Play. "The Cash Box" Music Department Gives Ops Fastest, Most Accurate and Complete Service Ever Devised

NEW YORK—When business is booming and running smoothly, the tendency is to relax and let things take care of themselves. Operators, for the most part, are prone to follow this practice. However, when collections drop off, the operator has two alternatives—1) he can sit back, do nothing—just cry and moan; or 2) he can start moving and thinking.

The music operator has a number of progressive steps he can take, among them: check to determine if the location has the proper equipment—then set the new machines in the best locations and upgrade other locations, trading in the older machines with wholesalers. This move gives life and sparkle to all the route. Of course, there is the matter of equitable commission and 10¢ play to make sure the product (music) isn't being sold at a loss. Then, and this is vitally important—complete cooperation of each location to see that the equipment gets peak play. Proper service is another factor, including mechanical and sparkling clean equipment.

But, one of the most important of all efforts by music operators should be directed at programming each machine with the best money making records. No matter what other moves a music operator makes, the final results are determined by the music the patron selects. The operator has every assistance in selecting the records which will bring in the biggest collections. The Cash Box' "Music Department" is acknowledged the most accurate, the fastest and the most complete service ever devised. Progressive operators have praised this publication continually for having made available lists, reviews and tips which has resulted in top play on their music machines. The information, therefore, is available—the music operator must now put it to use.

There are, of course, many other factors to take into consideration in programming a music machine. The operator must study each individual location, spending time in each spot to determine just what type of music is demanded. Some locations prefer rock 'n roll records; others sweet pops; others country; others standards; others band music; others singers; others foreign language records. If the operator cannot spare the time for this most important segment of his business, he should put on a specialist to cover the spots. A collector or mechanic cannot do the proper job.

Some firms, seeing their collections drop, have cut down on the purchases of records per machine. This is a sure way to commit suicide. Like many big firms, when business slacks off, their advertising budget and efforts are increased. The music machine operator must conduct his business in a like vein. He must, first of all study his locations and the records available (thru The Cash Box' "Music Department") then make the music available for the patrons in an increased programming effort.

Proper programming is worth every effort a music operator can put into it—both he and his location will then enjoy peak play profits.

Demand For Routes Grows New Blood as Well as Established Op- erating Firms Reported Seeking to Buy Going Routes in All Outstanding Oper- ating Areas. Demand For Routes Hits High Peak in Some Cities

CHICAGO — Perhaps not since the days of War II has there been such a demand for the purchase of routes almost everywhere in the country.

Not only are routes being sought by well established operating firms but, from reports, it seems that new men would like to enter into the industry thru purchase of going routes.

This became most noticeable, it is reported, in the larger, more outstanding operating areas around the country.

Many, many other cities, definitely a cross section of the nation have been beset by demands for purchases of going routes.

The fact does remain that, regardless of the big, current demand, sales of entire routes haven't been anywhere near what was expected.

Distributors, as well as operators, have let out word among the members of the trade that they will buy routes.

It is interesting that, in some of the larger and better known operating centers, complete, going routes are harder to find for sale than hen's teeth.

"I've got a dozen new people", one well known midwestern distributor reported, "who are anxious to buy going routes."

"Yet", he says, "I haven't been able to dig up a single route now that I'm able to make offers to those who told me their collections were off and business was bad for them."

Also interesting is the fact that the routes most wanted are music operations. It seems that both new men and old line firms want to buy music routes.

If the music route also has games the demand is just as good for its sale, if not better.

In some cases, some of those desiring to purchase going routes, specify the hope that there are amusements and music in the operation.

"Where, in former years, we could sell some new man a number of phonos and games and let him start up his own route," a distributor says, "today, this same man wants a going operating business."

"For a while", this distributor explained, "we thought we would be able to get almost any type operation the buyer wanted."

"We've since learned how wrong we were. It seems that, regardless of all the crying, the hardest business in the world to buy, even at a very good price, is a going operating business."

Demand is probably zooming due to the fact that so few routes have been put up for sale. Furthermore very few routes are being offered for sale in any outstanding operating area at this time.

Through The Coin Chute EASTERN FLASHES

Operators in the big city are looking at the bright side, even tho some of them report collections not up to previous years. "It could be much worse" stated one of the city's more progressive ops. "We should all be thankful that the two major league ball clubs have moved out. Checking our locations very carefully, we find that they no longer have to contend with TV broad casts of baseball games. Even in some spots, where the patrons insist on viewing the Yankee games, we do not lose too many hours. In Brooklyn and Long Island, we are practically home free, with no ball games on at all. So," he concludes, "let's be thankful for all favors."

Most of the distribs and their staffs will be at the annual banquet of the New York State Operators at Grossinger's Country Club in the Catskill Mountains on Sat. night, June 14, with practically all of New York City's visitors making a weekend of it. . . . Several coinmen have advised they will attend the unveiling of the memorial in memory of the late Sidney Levine on Sunday, June 22, at the Agudath Sholom Cemetery, Stamford, Conn., at 2 P.M. . . . Oscar Parkoff, Atlantic New York Corp. (Newark, N.J. office) in visiting Meyer Parkoff at N.Y. office. Meyer drove down to the Hartford, Conn., office on Monday to visit with mgr. Mac Perlman and Conn. ops. Parkoff brought along a present for Al Stalliccio, who was ailing. He presented Al with a big fat tire tube so that he could come to the office, and still be comfortable. Jack Gordon, Seeburg regional representative, spends some time here. Jack had been in Boston, and from N.Y. went on to Phila. . . . Lou and Howard Herman, well known ops, open the "Envoy" steakhouse restaurant on June 5, located on Lexington Ave. at 41st St. Coinmen all invited to drop in. . . . Barney (Shugy) Sugerman, Runyon Sales, closeted behind closed doors in his private office with ops all day long. Dealing and wheeling, he advises. Morris Rood building himself up physically for the opening of the Soft Ball League at the Brookside Country Club, Union, N.J., a week from Sunday. He and other guests at the N.Y. State Ops Assn. banquet at Grossinger's will get an opportunity to get in some advance practice.

Sandy Moore, Sandy Moore Distributing, reports sales of new Wurlitzer phonos best the firm ever enjoyed. Abe Lipsky out visiting ops in New Jersey, while Bernie Levine holds down the fort on 10th Ave. Al Kerner, an associate of Moore's getting ready for a big event—his son, Dave, gets himself married on Sat. night, June 14 at the Park Inn Hotel, Rockaway Park. . . . Amelia Macarelli, Kingston, N.Y. op, visits the wholesalers. . . . "Senator" Al Bodkin regales his listeners with three new stories, one of which was a real standout. Then in a serious mood, he relates a few of his business practices. The "Sen" should be prevailed upon to hold a lecture period for the city's ops. It's our opinion many could learn a great deal about the "psychological approach" to the operating business. . . . Myron Sugerman, on vacation from Bucknell U., has decided to work out of the Runyon Newark office during the day, and attend Seton Hall in the evenings to pick up some points to ease his senior year. . . . Al Warren newly named sales manager for Games, Inc., in New York where he appointed a distributor. Al came in from Boston, and from N.Y. will hit Phila. and Baltimore before returning to Chi. . . . Mike Munves rushes out to keep a biz appointment, leaving "Rusty" in charge. Biz still continues good advises Joe Munves. . . . Al Simon, Albert Simon, Inc., watches as ops try out ChiCoin's new "Explorer" a follow up to the firm's "Rocket Shuffle". A real exciting game. Workers busy on Simon's building alongside present quarters. Al intends to expand entire facilities when completed. . . . Sylvia Lowy, Dave Lowy & Co., holding down the office while Dave out seeing the trade. . . . With Harry Koeppel, Koeppel Distributing, out in Phila. attending the graduation of his son-in-law from U of P, Hymie rushes hither and yon trying to get out shipments.

Through The Coin Chute UPPER MID-WEST MUSINGS

Stan Baeder, New Rockford, N. D., in town for a few days making the rounds. Stan reports that his business has been holding its own and looks for a pretty good summer. . . . Dar Holsman and his pretty little daughter, Sally, drove down from Big Fork, Minn., Monday. Dar operating in some of the finest resort areas in the northern part of the state expects a very good summer business providing the weather holds up. . . . Harry and Johnny Galep of Menomonie, Wis., were in town at the time the tornado hit the outskirts of Menomonie last Wednesday. Newspapers said that there has been over 10 million dollars in destruction in the surrounding areas. . . . Joe Perkins, Mpls. operator has sold his route and is planning to move to Seattle, Wash., to go into business. In the early forties Joe operated one of the largest routes in town, and sold out to go to Seattle. After a few years he came back to Minneapolis and went back into business. Now he has decided that he will make his home in Seattle again. . . . Irene Lake, secretary to Harold Lieberman for the past ten years is leaving the end of June to make her home in Los Angeles, Cal. Everyone that knows Irene wishes her the best of luck. . . . Herman Paster, Paster Dist. Co., St. Paul, Minn., visiting his Milwaukee office this week for a few days. . . . Al Plotnick, service man for the United Machine Co., Mpls., is in the hospital for a rest and check up. Al hasn't been feeling well the past few weeks. . . . Ralph and Blanche Harvey of Mitchell, S. D., in town Friday morning to visit their daughter and to attend a wedding that night. They expect to leave for home the next day as they have nobody to look after the route when they are away. . . . Harlan Beach, Alexandria, Minn., in Wyoming the past week to look after some of his uranium holdings. . . . Amos Miller, Spooner, Wis., in town early Monday morning on a fast trip to look for some used equipment. . . . Lloyd Williamson and his son, and Jim Stansfield, from Winona, Minn., in town the same day comparing notes as they make the rounds visiting the dist. . . . Al Kirtz and his son in town for the day picking up his record supply and misc. parts.

The 16th Anniversary Issue will also be the 1st Anniversary of The Cash Box' "International Coin Machine Export-Import Council." There are now members from 43 different countries, not counting the U.S., in the "council" . . . Dave Gottlieb advises, "The West Towns Hospital Building Fund Campaign has secured a larger total of pledges in a shorter period of time than any other fund-raising effort in the western suburbs." The campaign was kicked off on April 14, '58. Over $450,000 in pledges already received. . . . United's Bill DeSelm can tell funny stories as well as most professional comics. The one Bill told us last week was a lulu. If you haven't heard Billy's latest—phone him. . . . There's more demand for entire routes right now than there was even during War II. But the fact is, there are very, very few routes up for sale. . . . REMEMBER—WEDNESDAY, JUNE 25, 1958 IS CLOSING DAY FOR THE 16th ANNIVERSARY ISSUE—RUSH YOUR AD IN RIGHT NOW.

Happy over one very big and important fact is Bally's Bill O'Donnell who reports, "Our distributors are the busiest in the industry." Bill explains, "We've given them the most complete line in history. . . . Ed Levin returned from his vacation just in time to make the announcement of ChiCoin's new "Rocket Explorer." Sam Gensburg and Mort Secore were busier than busy all the past week getting these out to their distributors prior to their official announcement. . . . Which reminds, Harry (Commando) Glick is also busier than ever. The gun shooting season is under way and parks and arcades are in need of "Commando Machine Guns." . . . Keeney's Paul Huebsch reports, "Looks to me like our 'DeLuxe Big Tent' will be selling big all thru '58 and well into '59." Paul bases his statement on the fact that sales are going up right along. . . . United Music's Jack Mitnick flying over to Europe. Jack's been over a couple of times but hasn't yet seen any of the sights. "Much too busy seeing the people," he explains. . . . Our award for neatness that brings into being the pride of greater efficiency to Fleming Johnson of Seeburg. One trip thru the big Seeburg plant to see what marvelous ideas Fleming Johnson put into effect will definitely win the plaudits of any visitor.

Suggestion for anyone who's blue and feeling depressed or down-in-the-dumps. Simply phone Sam Solomons in Columbus and ask him to tell you the one about the "middle of the night." . . . Frederick C. Evans of Mechanical Sales, Milwaukee, just advised the "20 Year Club" that he has retired from the coinbiz. And at so young an age, too. Fred's only 85. . . . Both United's Ralph Sheffield and Johnny Casola know more about actual conditions than do many in the industry. Just like the old-time roadmen, Ralph and Johnny travel so extensively they have been bringing news from one area to the other. . . . Al Warren and Clarence Schuyler reported to be plotting ways and means to again step up production of their "Double Shot." . . . With Clayton Nemeroff away on an extended tour, Marvel's Estelle Bye busier than ever keeping up with the orders he sends in. . . . Donan's open house in their new quarters will be on Sun., June 22. Don Moloney, Mac Brier and Howie Freer making many unique plans to greet all visitors.

Three of the busiest with "Picnic" on the mind—Nate and Alvin Gottlieb and Judd Weinberg. . . . With Fred Minter speeding thru Illinois and Jack Burns traveling thruout Indiana, Joe Robbins reports Empire's rental business growing by leaps and bounds. . . . Nate Feinstein and Bill Phillips in a huddle over at Atlas and both come out with great big smiles. Business is good at Atlas. . . . Don't know why, but they're calling him, "Big-hearted Johnny Michaels." . . . Atlanta's Jake Friedman advises that business is always good for those who want to make it good. . . . They're calling Bob Gnarro of ABC, "The man on the go." . . . Like someone said the other day, listening to one operator telling how he cut down on this, that and the other thing, "Look, friend," he said, "don't economize yourself out of business." . . . Even with a brace on his back, due to an old injury, Don Moloney is still shooting golf in the 80's. . . . Frank Padula of Melody Music bought the route of General Coin. "To keep my boys busy," claims Frank. . . . Lou Casola talking about a half-million-dollar deal with over $400,000 inventory. . . . Sam Taran telling one and all about his gorgeous 25th wedding anniversary party.

By request we're going to recall some things a lot of guys would like to see all over again: The fun and action at United's old Broadway plant. Like the day the Big Swede carved a special paddle to help Lyn celebrate his birthday. . . . One of the old time conventions at the Sherman in the 30's. . . . Jimmy Johnson extolling the virtues and features, not of 'Aksarben,' but, instead, of his fur-covered, vibrating couch in his office at the old Western factory. . . . The day George Jenkins was promoted to "8th Vice President" of Bally. . . . Bill DeSelm engaged in repartee with a noted comic at a big nitespot. . . . Charles (Little Jimmy) Johnson phoning Capt. Tom Callaghan in San Juan, Puerto Rico, and the conversation that followed. All this during a St. Pat's party. . . . That much publicized tennis match between Lou Boas-

The Cash Box' Staff Urges All in Trade to Suggest Important Material to be Included in 16th Anniversary Year Book of the Industry

CHICAGO — The staff of this publication is of the hope that all in the industry will avail themselves of the opportunity to report any editorial material which can be used in the big, annual 16th Anniversary Year Book of The Cash Box which will be going to press on the 25th of this month.

Such editorial material that will appear in the outstanding 16th Anniversary Year Book will remain as a permanent record for all the industry.

The Cash Box' anniversary issues have become known as "The Encyclopaedia Year Books of the Industry."

These annual issues have won this high regard because they are saved for the entire year and constantly referred to by the field internationally.

This is due to the fact that a complete report of the entire year's events is digested in this one annual issue.

At the same time pictures of all machines produced during the year appear in this issue. These are constantly referred to, especially in the world import markets, when ordering machines.

There also appears the names of manufacturers, distributors and suppliers.

In short, almost everything anyone would want to know about the industry, appears in this one, big, annual Anniversary Year Book issue of The Cash Box.

Therefore, those who have any editorial material available, which they believe should appear in such an historical issue, should rush this material to the editors of The Cash Box immediately.

How To Use "THE CASH BOX PRICE LISTS"

[Also known as the "C. M. I. (Coin Machine Industry) BLUE BOOK"]

FOREWORD: Many times, wide differences appear in the quotation of high and low prices of certain equipment. Like any true reporter "The Cash Box Price Lists" can only feature the market prices as they are quoted. "The Cash Box Price Lists" act exactly the same as the market quotation board at the Stock Exchange—posting the prices as they are quoted for the past week, regardless of how much they may seem to be out of line. Some prices do not change for months. "The Cash Box Price Lists," rather than show no price, retain the last known quotations for such equipment so that the subscriber at least has the last known prices as a basis to work with. Prices may be very widely divergent. Someone on the West Coast may feel a certain machine worth $150.00 whereas someone on the East Coast may think it worth but $75.00. Of course, serial, appearance, demand, territory, quantity, and condition of equipment must be taken into consideration. (Some equipment offered by outstanding firms, having a reputation for shipping completely reconditioned machines, will be offered at higher prices than others, due to the added cost of reconditioning.) "The Cash Box Price Lists" reports each quotation exactly as it is made and depends on the subscriber to make average price adjustments to fit the peculiarities of his territory.

METHOD: "The Cash Box Price Lists" should be read as follows: First price listed is lowest price quoted for the week; Second price listed is highest price quoted.

FOREIGN BUYERS: To cover cost of packing, crating, shipping, etc., figure an additional $20 to $25 on Pin Games—and $25 to $30 on Phonographs.
